FARM.

Economical Farming.

The most important item in economical farming is to save the fertility of the soil. The raising of large crops is always an item, and care should be taken to secure them; and yet it is not true economy to rob the soil year after year without making a single effort to keep up its increasing fertility. It is an easy matter when the soil is strong and fresh to raise large crops, and then in the best time to commence building up the fertility. If left alone a few years, and crops raised continuously, we can expect there will be a gradual diminution of fertility and consequent failure to secure large yields.

Then you must incur an expense to commence building up. Much the most economical plan is to lay out a system of rotation, green manuring, stock raising and feeding and saving all the manure possible. If this is properly done, there need be no loss in fertility, but even with rich, strong soil, a gradual increase.

To secure the best results, crops must be planted and cultivated at as near the proper time as possible. You may save a little expense in hiring help or in doing with less machinery. You can sow your corn or plant your corn a week or two days later than the proper time that such work should be done, yet you may economize in labor or machinery saved, but at the expense of the crop, and certainly we cannot consider this economical farming.

There is always a best time for doing all kinds of farm work, and the nearer we are able to do this the better and more profitable will be the results. We may manage to make the old plow, or the old cultivator, or harrow, do the work another year. The plow has once been used twelve times plow, and with a good team you could average at least ten acres a day. Sharpening and wear has worn the share down until it barely cuts nine inches. You lose one-fourth of your time and that of your team just at a time when the farm work is most important to save the expense of purchasing a new plow. How many days' work will it require to make up the difference in price, to say nothing of being behind with your farm work? A cultivator that requires constant repairing to do any kind of work, and then fails to do the work as it should be done, makes a difference with one acre of corn that will go a long way toward paying for the difference between the old and new. It is certainly good economy to see that the farm is supplied with tools that will economize time and labor; then with sufficient help to do the work in season. Having the tools is not all; you must have help enough to work them.

Economical farming implies the hiring of the extra help or the more cultivation in order to secure the best results. If it costs no more to feed and keep a hog that will market in nine months and be ready for market, while another will have to grow fifteen or eighteen months before it can be marketed; or a chicken that it will cost no more to raise, yet when ready to market will weigh at least ten pounds, besides making a faster growth, and in consequence will be ready for market earlier.

In the majority of cases poultry is sold by weight, whether alive or dressed, and the weight is always an object to secure. It is unquestionably economical farming to raise the best. Of course it may cost a little more to secure a start, but this is a small item compared with the results secured. It is a false idea of true economy that induces the farmer to stick to old worn-out implements; keep worn-out tools, and always believe that farm work, simply to save a few cents on the outlay, irrespective of what the result will be.

While of course it is possible to go to either extreme, yet it is always best to work in season, to have tools that will economize time and labor as much as possible, and to keep stock that will pay the largest profit for their feed and care, as in the money invested.

PARROTS.

The stories of parrots are innumerable, but one especially that Mr. Beard relates possesses the charm of novelty as well as illustrating beyond doubt that this mimic possesses a keen sense of humor. A gentleman owned a parrot that was apparently possessed of no talent. One day he was given a piece of meat which the cat wanted and that worthy climbed up the cage and stole it. Polly uttered no resistance, but appeared to be greatly frightened, and flew to the top of the cage and fluttered about until the cat succeeded in letting his tail fall between the bars of the cage. Polly soon saw this, and forgetting fear, pounced down on the bottom of the cage and catching the tail in its cruel beak gave it such a pinch that the cat jumped headlong to the floor, squalling as though death were over it with a clasp. Polly at once set upon its prey, as much like a human being as possible.

Another story is of a jolly fat butcher who owned a very bright parrot. One day, being of an apologetic turn, he fell over dead. Polly saw it, but said nothing. She watched curiously everything that was done. She saw the silence of the marketplace as they raised the body and placed it on a slab, covering it with a cloth and speaking only in muffled whispers. Polly noted the heart-pounding of the crowd, and at last, getting out of her cage, cried out in an authoritative tone: "Fat up the shavers!" Of course, at such a time, and in such a place, and coming from such a source, this remark was too much. The Polly was removed at the suggestion of some one. Still her humor did not leave her, for she promptly demanded: "What is all this row about?"

NEWSPAPERS.

No newspaper ever published pleased everybody, and every sensible taker of a paper, in passing judgment upon it, decides the matter upon the whole value of the publication from week to week, not condemning it because he finds something printed therein that displeases him, or considering it infallible because it expresses from week to week, his exact views. Otherwise the only successful newspaper would be the one that never expressed any views on a point of interest, confining itself to mere items of news. These two classes of papers were never known to exist in an intelligent community, after being conducted upon that principle for any length of time, for a community is judged by the outside world by the newspapers which it supports.

OVER THE OCEAN.

England owns 25,000,000 fowls, and 1,000,000,000 eggs were imported in 1885. The visitors to the London Zoo during 1885 were only 659,896, against 748,460 in 1884, a falling off, due, it is supposed, to financial distress among the working people.

A small blue book has been issued, giving the annual return of the volunteer corps of Great Britain for last year. There was at the close of 1885 a maximum of 1,000,000 of 244,966, and the figures remain at this, with slight variations, until 1874, when the number was 236,585. From that year the number gradually grew, until in 1885 it reached 250,967.

The French Government has just conferred upon Gen. Salomon, the president of the republic of Hayti, the grand cross of the Legion of Honor. This testimony of esteem and sympathy given by France to the chief of the Haytian Government, proves how much she appreciates his efforts to protect French interests in the republic of the Antilles, and is a guarantee of the perfect entente cordiale existing between the two countries.

The landed property of England covers 72,000,000 acres. It is worth $10,000,000,000, and yields an annual rent, independent of mine, of $350,000,000. One-fourth of this territory, a moiety of that held by the owners of less than an acre, is in the hands of 1,200 proprietors, and a second fourth is owned by 6,200 others; so that half of the entire country is held by 7,400 individuals. The population is 35,000,000. The peas, net 600 in number, own more than one-fifth of the Kingdom; they possess 14,000,000 acres of land, worth $2,000,000,000 with an annual rental of $68,000,000—(General Adam Baden).

M. Loevey, an architect of Lyons, refers favorably to the extensive use of cinders for foundation work in that city and neighborhood. The cost of these cinders is stated to be about $2.50 per cubic yard, and a small quantity of common or hydraulic lime is mixed with them before using, the mixture being wetted and rammed in layers. When arches or vaults are formed of this kind of concrete, care is necessary not to place the layers of material parallel to the surface of the ground or the curve of the vaulting, but to ram the layers in such a manner as will consolidate them vertically to the curve of the vaulting. In this way all risk of sinking of any of the material is avoided.

The name of "Newberg" has been given to the interesting new metal discovered by Dahl some years ago, while he was examining a specimen of nickel ore from Kragero, in Norway. This addition to the now rapidly growing list of elements is a valuable metal of white color, with a bluish tinge, and possesses, when pure, a metallic lustre, but on exposure to the atmosphere becomes coated with a thin film of oxide. Its hardness is about that of copper, its specific gravity is nearly nine and one-half, and it melts at 250 degrees Cent. From its physical properties and chemical reaction, it appears to differ from every other known metal as to give it a distinct individuality.

An extensive industry has arisen in France to supply an artificial substitute for natural ivory in view of the growing infirmity of the latter to meet the demands of art and industry. The majority of the products formerly made of ivory were obtained by injecting whitened with chloride of lime under strong pressure. At the Amsterdam Exhibition, however, almost all the products had been prepared with the bones of sheep and waste pieces of deer and kid skins. The bones are for this purpose macerated and bleached for two weeks in chloride of lime, then heated by steam along with the skins, so as to form a solid mass, to which are added a few hundredths of alum; the mass is then filtered, dried in the air, and allowed to harden in a bath of alum, the result being white tough plates which are more easily worked than natural ivory.

The Hamburg newspaper gives the following account of a curious and exceptional incident which occurred in the collection of a dealer in wild animals in that city. For some time past one of the largest elephants brought over by some Cingalese, had shown signs of furious delirium, and it was at length decided to kill the animal, which was valued at 12,000 fr. An Englishman had once offered to give 1,000 marks, if the specimen presented itself, for the privilege of shooting the enraged beast. The sportsman was thereupon summoned by telegraph; but in the presence of the raging animal he became frightened, and gave up the intention of bringing it down with shot. Stragulation was then resolved upon as a means of dispatch. Chains were passed round the neck of the elephant, which had been behind, and the two ends of the chain were drawn tightly by means of a tackle. Ten minutes afterward the clearest creature ceased to live.

A curious story comes from Toulouse of a laboring woman who, during her work in the fields, was in the habit of leaving her baby in a shady corner, returning to give the child the breast as opportunities occurred. To protect the child from harm, the dog (a bitch) was left in charge. The mother noticed after a time that the child no longer exhibited the same impatience for the breast as formerly, although its general condition was excellent, and its indifference could not be attributed to failing appetite. One day, on returning to take charge of her offspring, she was astonished to see the dog standing tranquilly across the child and looking at it. The mother, who saw no objection to the proceeding, allowed the habit to continue, and the child seemed to thrive on the milk of its novel nurse. The dog exhibited a truly maternal tenderness for the child, and as the child grew older this tenderness was heartily reciprocated.

A Spanish philosopher of a philosophical turn of mind affirms that men's character and dispositions are more accurately read in the way they wear their boots and shoes than in their physiognomy or even in their handwriting. He says: "Show me the toes of a man after he has worn them two months and I will answer for you his character. In your shoes, for instance, I see lack of energy, levity, negligence, and a disposition to evade the fulfilling of disagreeable duties and obligations. The even wearing away of the heels and soles of a pair of shoes shows that the wearer is a man, is one of good business habits, energetic, prudent, of good head, and faithful in the discharge of his duties."

If a woman's shoes are worn in the heel, that she is, or is capable of being, a good wife and excellent mother of a family. If the outer edge of the soles are worn away much more than the inner ones, the wearer has unstable fickle character, prone to ingratitude. If the inner edges are most worn it indicates irresolution and weakness. In a man and modesty in a woman. A few months ago a stranger entered my store wearing a pair of shoes that were very much worn on the outside edges and at the toes, the latter so badly that they were quite broken through, while the other parts of the shoes were almost new. I took care to watch that man while he was near my goods, and when he was gone, said to my wife: "That man is a thief." The next day he was arrested by the police for a robbery.

IN AND ABOUT JERUSALEM.

The Picturesqueness of the Holy City—Street Scenes—Site of the Temple.

Nearly every one makes the journey from Jaffa on horseback, though a few use the old-fashioned velocipede without springs, of the same type that Assyrians employed thirty centuries ago. The city is entered by Jaffa gate. The walls are very well preserved, being only 500 years old. No city of the Orient retains more of the picturesqueness of the past. Doubtless this is in part due to the fact that all the buildings are constructed of stone. It is located on the crest of two mountains—Moriah and Zion, but little timber is found, and to transport it to the city would be costly. The streets do not need macadamizing; they are trenches in the solid rock. The houses being of the same material and substantially built it is impossible to destroy the town by fire, and so family after family, and generation after generation inhabit undisturbed the

DWELLING OF THERIA ANCESTORS.

The houses include, as part of a roof, a small and circular dome, around which is built a level walk, where every one loiters during the twilight and early eve. What seems strange in the small space to which the city is confined. In reading Josephus, where he states that 100,000 people inhabited Jerusalem during the siege of Titus, one marvels where they could have stored themselves. The present walls follow the lines of those then destroyed and yet the 45,000 inhabitants now living seem to fill all the enclosed space. It is true that little ground is occupied by gardens, and there is not in the city as average wide as an ordinary street. No horse walks, no sewers, no public squares exist. You must walk in the middle of the dirty lanes, fighting your way among camels, donkeys, and dogs. For as the Orientals, who are the scavengers. Old Jerusalem up to the time of David was built on the summit and sides of Mount Zion. Solomon built the temple on Mount Moriah and around it gradually built another town. In time the locality between the two hills was filled so that now the road from

THE TOWER OF DAVID.

to the temple grounds is level. The periphery of the walls extends many points of interest still located. In the garden of Gethsemane, occupied a monastery. The ground is covered with olive trees, one of which is said to be coeval with the crucifixion. Gethsemane is perhaps 200 yards from the east wall, and immediately below in the valley of the Kedron is the tomb of Absalom. The top of Mount Olive, which shadows Gethsemane, is a mile from the city wall. The name is well applied, for olive trees abound on its sides, and the Jerusalem olive is celebrated throughout Syria for its size and succulent flavor. On the site of Solomon's temple, Omar, who conquered the city in the seventh century, has erected a mosque or Turkish mosque. The site of the oldest existing example of Arah, or what is subsequently termed Saracenic architecture. It must have been the model for the Christian edifice on Mount Calvary; and in fact, all the churches and synagogues in the city to partake of the light material, the intricate web of the windows, with the multitude of small openings, the gaudy colors that characterize the Orientals, both in their buildings and costumes.

Death From Hydrophobia.

Jacob Hertline, the Brooklyn builder, who was bitten on his right hand by a Newfoundland dog on March 6, and in whom were developed unmistakable symptoms of hydrophobia, is dead. He had been under the treatment of Dr. Paul H. Kretschmar from 10 o'clock on Wednesday night, and at no time afterward was hope of his recovery entertained. On Thursday night, in spite of frequent administrations of anodynes, the spasms and convulsions continued, and the patient sometimes became so violent that he required three or four men to hold him. His mind remained clear. He gradually became exhausted, and a half an hour before his death he relaxed into quietness. He knew then that death was approaching, and having motioned his wife and children to his bedside, bade them farewell.

Soon after death the purplish hue on the wound disappeared. Mr. Ungerland, the owner of the Newfoundland dog, says that the dog had been in his possession for more than a year; that he was always quiet and kind, and had never shown any symptoms of hydrophobia. He denies a report that the dog also bit a child, and that the boy about the same time that Mr. Hertline was bitten. Mr. Hertline, it is said, had no apprehensions of hydrophobia in consequence of the bite, and it was only when he was told that he was infected on having the dog killed. His mind was disturbed, however, early in the week in consequence of an attack made on him by another dog while he was conversing with a friend in front of his house. The dog jumped at his face and caught him by the beard, but did not bite him. Mr. Hertline, worried a little over the incident, and recalled his more unpleasant experience with the Newfoundland in March. Another cause of excitement was the strike of some of his men. While the physicians entertain no doubt whatever as to the cause of death, an autopsy will be made in the interest of medical science.

A Bride Chanted the Parson.

Some rather odd stories could be told by the man who ties the knot, but he chose to give his thoughts tongue. If the fee is $50 or more, the green takes great pleasure in personally transacting the business, but is equally anxious in securing a substitute when a smaller sum is to be paid for the union. In case he has no brother-in-law, with directions for his transfer to the parson, and hurriedly left the room. The bride, hearing the conversation, succeeded in detaining the juvenile, and hunting up one of the other her most trusted friends for "traveling trifle," swapped gold-pieces and called herself "just a husband and $15 ahead." She changed her mind very shortly as to the monetary gain, for the first thing she heard as she emerged from her room in her traveling suit was: "Isn't as big as the moon!" She gave up the idea, but it was said would do well enough. Even the groom marveled at the business of his pretty wife as he ministered to her good-byes and goodnights.

A Lake Michigan Mystery.

We had no sooner left Potosky than something got into the old steamboat. She began to lurch and lurch and lurch up and down in such a queer manner that we held a meeting and appointed a committee to wait on the captain and ask for information. Whether the captain threw 'em overboard, or they got tired out and lay down under the planks to rest we never knew.

Pretty soon after that Lake Michigan began to see like a barn fool. It would rear up in front and kick up behind, and such horse-play on the part of a lake 16,000 or 20,000 years old was disgusting. We held another meeting, but as we failed to fasten the responsibility on any particular person no resolutions were passed. I have always been sorry we didn't lay it on Christopher Columbus and give his memory half Columbia.

Half an hour after being out it seemed as if some one ought to go to the captain and ask him if there was any particular object in the boat behaving in such a manner. A man on the ward might be greatly amused to see a steamboat stand on its head, but a man aboard of her takes it more seriously. There was a fat woman from Toronto among us who said that it was altogether irresponsible as to beyond endurance, and she started out to tell the captain so. The next time I saw her she lay under one of the tables, her head jammed into a basket of huckleberries and her feet kicking the ribs of a dying young man.

It seemed to me that it made a difference to a passenger which end the boat stood on, but we really couldn't see any. It was when she rolled from side to side that we felt relief. During these rolls we were pretty sure of being up against a sofa instead of the piano, and we could feel the difference right off. We were very friendly, and for a while we were very friendly. Chicago aristocrats aboard, but they went with the rest and made no objections. I saw a lumberman worth a million dollars pluck head first under a table in the society of a half-breed Indian worth less than two dollars, and he never raised an objection when the Indian came out on top. The friendly spirit dropped out in suggestions.

We suggested lemon, peppermint, aniseed, ammonia, camphor, brandy, wine and various other things, and a man who had a plot of cod liver oil in his suitcase generously offered to divide with the assemblage. We passed a resolution of thanks, but he was too good to rest before he could be notified.

There were several things I wanted to speak to the captain about, but for some reason he held me off from him. I wanted to ask:

1. "Will we ever reach port?"
2. "How deep is this part of the lake?"
3. "Don't you think you could stand three months on dry land?"
4. "Why not try oyster oil? I'll donate a few cents for it."
5. "Is sucking the head of a cane any better than biting the leg of a table?"
6. "Do you think this condition of this boat is guided by humor?"
7. "Why not give a fellow his choice between cholera and seasickness?"

An I said, the captain held me off, but he was serious in the presence of a man who had killed him down and asked him to head the old boat for the bottom and end the uncertainty of small boats. He asked as unconcerned as if we were boatmen.

After about an hour the few of us who still sat up drew closer together, and a feeling of confidence was manifest. Every one wanted to unobscure himself to the others. We owned up to stealing hens, calves, sheep and horses—to robbing stores, banks and churches—to murdering drivers and the peddlers and book agents.

We all felt better for these confessions, and as we were on life-preservers and shook hands and whispered out and farewells the hour was impressive.

Whether the boat was to go to land, safely I have never been able to remember, and I have never met one of the passengers who would come squarely out and inform me of the truth of the matter. Whenever I have accidentally run across one he has seemed to avoid me as if I was a man to be shunned.

DETACHED THOUGHTS.

Mediocrity is the dry rot that paralyzes progress.

Pleasure in work is the mere delirium of rhapsody.

The cant of politics is scarcely less reprehensible than its corruptions.

Pleasure is the parent of pleasure, and all selfish achievement is a delusion.

The life of a man who is not a poet never knows the glow or the glory of honest enthusiasm.

What is a painted picture? A dab of varicolored mud—a libel on nature—the shadowed shadow of the stage.

It is not quite possible for me to run away from the conviction that there is a lot of coast in thanking God for afflictions.

I never knew a man to be lifted out of a groveling condition by marriage with a woman when he knew to be his superior.

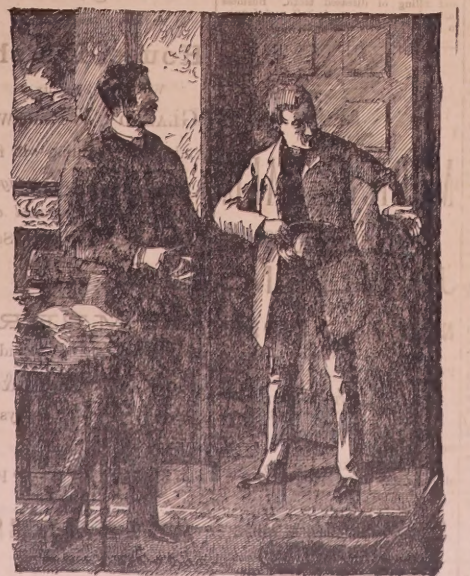

The debauch man holds all refinements in contempt. He takes as kindly to rage as to royal raiment. A bath gives him moral hydrophobia. He does not even care to hide his sores under a garment of politeness.

Discontent is unnatural to woman. The contented wife, perhaps, reckless of her good fame, but it is only in the last stage of woman's descent into the social hell that she becomes indifferent to these refinements that make her sex attractive.

Reputations for profound thought are sometimes gained by intellectual confidence men. They check they give on the bank of brains show big figures on their face, but they do not yield the coin. The profoundest thought has no dubious meaning.

Mothers seldom stop to think that despite role of their daughters—nagging and irritating sentinels of every step—is by reflection a self-inflict. They needed Argus watching, therefore their daughters are as little trustworthy. It is the way they would have us interpret their suppliant despotism.

It is true that every life has periods when the world, with all that is in it, is inexpressibly beautiful and dear. There, sadly enough, come later periods, perhaps when our appreciative and grateful tone of the inexpressibly beautiful and dear vanishes in the pathetic discovery that both the spirit and the flesh are weaker than we had ever dreamed they could become.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Although times are considered hard and money scarce people manage to have fine carriages and harnesses.

We noticed on Saturday last three top buggies two open buggies and one spring wagon leaving Mr. John Bruin's carriage shop, as also several others in the same week with nice carriages it is necessary to have new harness which makes lively times for both branches of business.

Any amount of eggs and deacon skins taken in at the stores here, buyers coming every week and leaving with heavy loads.

On Sunday last Mr. John Roach of the 5th concession went to take his wife to see Dr. Hudson, at Roslin, she having been unwell for a short time; on arriving at Mr. McLaren's Hotel she did not feel as well as when leaving home, he dispatched a man in haste for the doctor, who when he arrived found her dying. She leaves a family of six small children, her husband was largely attended on Tuesday at the R. C. Church, Marysville.

Mr. Roach lost a child a short time since, also a brother, and now his companion; his many friends feel the greatest sympathy for him in his sore affliction and bereavement.

We are informed by public print that Deseronto is negotiating for a railroad from that town to Lonsdale which we think is a step in the right direction and we wish you success in the enterprise.

DEMORESTVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The District Meeting for the Methodist Church of Prince Edward was held at Wellington on the 18th and 19th; the Rev. J. S. Clarke, of Picton, in the chair. The Rev. T. J. E. Smith, of Rodderville, was elected secretary, with Rev. Mr. Wilson as assistant. There were two cases of appeal from the lower courts, the one having reference to the character of a layman, the other regarding the sale of church property. In the first case the appeal was sustained and the brother restored to membership in the church; in the other it was decided that the District Meeting had no jurisdiction, but a resolution was adopted advising a rehearing in the case.

The Rev. Mr. Tomlin was elected on the standing committee, and the Rev. Mr. Baker on the Sabbath School.

Mr. Nehemiah Wood was elected lay delegate to the Annual Conference from the Demorestville Circuit.

All the returns from the various funds of the church, and the membership returns show that the Methodist Church of this county is in a healthy and progressive state.

The Rev. Hiram Williams, of Sydney, and the Rev. J. Cook, of this place, exchanged pulpits on Sabbath last. Mr. Williams is a native of Big Island, and his ministrations on Sabbath were heartily appreciated by the people.

PICTON.

From an occasional Correspondent.

The 24th May was a gala day here, no less than four excursions coming to the town during the day. One over the C.C.R. consisting of nine cars with 'all Trenton' aboard; one from Nanapanee on the 'Reindeer'; one from Belleville on the 'Varuna'; and last, but not least, the moonlight on the 'Quinte' from the 'city'.

The races in the afternoon were the central attraction, and were certainly the best ever held here. One of these was the trotting moose, the property of Mr. Cunningham, of Trenton, which certainly was a surprise to all.

The hotels were crowded all day long (and all night too if the truth were known) for Nanapanee stayed behind in squads, and one old toper was heard to remark that he had had a 'smile' since last May, through that damned 'Canadian-Scott' Act. Every body seemed to enjoy themselves, and all expressed themselves surprised at the cemetery, which is certainly one of the most beautiful in Ontario. A large number of excursionists drove to the Sandbanks, while as many more went to Glenora, which was formally opened for the season on that day. The Belleville and Nanapanee boats left about 5:10 p.m.; the Trenton crowd about 8:30 p.m. on the train. A jollier crowd you never saw for they were in Picton and they fought their way through to Trenton. One Concession man said he could fight any man in the train. Every Trenton man was at him in a minute; he called for help, and of course Concession responded, and a tableau ensued (hair blood, cuts, wounds, etc., etc.). The next morning the Concession man paid one dollar and costs.

About 10:00 p.m. the 'Quinte' arrived with a jolly good lot of our Deseronto friends accompanied by the band, which received great praise from all. The fine boat as she steamed to her dock. Unfortunately rain began to fall as they arrived, which of course marred the fun, and the boat returned earlier than she would have done. A number of Picton people returned with the crowd to Deseronto, and arrived home again about 2 p.m. They report spending a very jolly time, and so the 24th can be said to have been a dusty streets with lights all out and fourteen in goal.

The new storehouse is rapidly approaching completion; over 100 persons will be employed there.

The Rathbun Company are building new storehouses and coal sheds at the wharf, which together with Mr. Hepburn's new building give the harbour quite a new appearance.

The Amateur Comedy Co. gave an entertainment in the Town Hall last Wednesday which was their maiden effort. The amateur farce, entitled 'The Two Frigidities' was well received, and the company have been asked to repeat it, which they intend doing ere long.

The Century Soap Co. are commencing the manufacture of a superior toilet soap which is being made by Mr. Owens has just returned from New York where he has been purchasing machinery for its manufacture. He will take the road with samples next week.

The largest variety of Tobaccos and Cigars in town is at Bruton's. See his large Jumbo plug of chewing at 15cots or 2 for 25cots.

Mr. Neil Campbell is painting Mr. J. C. Hanley's residence, after which a number of other jobs are waiting for an application of his magic brush.

Mr. Lally is engaged erecting a new building for Mr. J. C. Hanley 30 by 100 ft. The raising of the corner last week.

Mr. James Melgar's new barn 60 by 48 feet was also raised last week, under the superintendence of Mr. Michael Gaffney the popular and energetic contractor.

Mr. John Smith lost a fine horse valued at $200 last week. The animal came in contact with the handle of a fork, which entered his flank and he only lived two or three days.

None of our local Nimrods have been killed since the 12th of May. One day recently one of our young hunters laid a ground hog and placed it among the stones at the fence, near a big barn, in such a position that it seemed to be sticking its head out viewing the surroundings. Two of our mighty Nimrods in going down to the barn after dinner got right at the animal. The man who was ahead turned and beckoned to his companion to halt and go back for the gun which happened to be loaded. He lost no time in getting the gun and letting fly at Mr. Groundhog, but he never stirred. The first man said, 'you can't hit the side of a 100ft. barn, give me the gun and let me try.' He took the gun, loaded it and blazed away and the animal rolled over dead as a door nail. The victorious hunter shouted 'I am the boy who can shoot,' and went over to examine the game, but to their dismay they found the body cold and stiff in death. They concluded to say nothing about the matter, but the Rumor happened to be about at the time and gave the boys away.

The committee who have in hand the arrangements for the grand picnic on the 17th inst., in Hanley's Grove, are making every effort to make the picnic a great success and the greatest event of the season. The four parties the grand picnic were always successful, and as there has not been a picnic now for two years, no effort will be spared to make the one this year a great success. Games, music, dancing, and amusements for old and young will be provided, and no pains will be spared to afford recreation and amusement to all. If the weather only proves favorable hundreds will be attracted from the surrounding country. Come one. Come all.

Mrs. Fairman has been meeting with great success as organist and leader of the choir. Her praiseworthy efforts to improve the singing and to render the church music as good as possible are fully appreciated. During the spring it was not an easy matter for the choir to attend practice regularly, and yet with all hindrances and difficulties the choir has been able to hold their own.

We understand that Mrs. Fairman intends shortly giving a musical entertainment in Hanley's Hall.

'It must be truly confessed, Charlie was not shooting his best, He missed the bird near, And the bullet we hear, Was found in a whip-poor-will's nest.'

Last Sunday Mrs. John Roach, of the 5th con., died rather suddenly. She had been complaining for some time, but no serious consequences were apprehended, but on Sunday last she felt weak and faint, and shortly after expired. The deceased lady was a daughter of Mr. Michael Ford, a most excellent young woman and universally respected. She leaves a family of six young children to mourn her untimely loss. The funeral took place on Tuesday last at the Catholic Cemetery, Marysville, and was largely attended.

We regret to learn that Mr. Brennan still continues in a poor state of health.

We observe that some farmers having no fear of the law before their eyes the caution of which is represented in the portly person of our worthy Chief of Police, have got into the habit of tying their teams to the shade trees growing along the side of the road. The vote on the second reading of the Home Rule bill will be taken Tuesday night. Mr. Chamberlain has in an able speech placed himself in direct antagonism to the present bill, and disconcerted the government and may possibly prevent the second reading, and lead to an immediate dissolution.

Mr. Chamberlain favors a federation which will in course of time be no doubt effected. He also favors the formation of Ulster into a distinct province of his proposed federation a mischievous policy which we hope will not become law. Mr. Gladstone may possibly fail in his present measure, but it is not unlikely that he has gained for Ireland the priceless boon of home rule, as whether defeated or not, the establishment of a national legislature for Ireland will certainly be a great boon to an appeal to the people his vast influence with the masses will probably again place him at the head of a strong majority in Parliament.

COMMUNICATIONS.

EARLY CLOSING.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Sir,—As the summer months are now on us, and the weather is so warm, the question, on which I observe you commented editorially in your last issue, viz. the early closing movement in Deseronto.

In nearly every place of importance, all stores of respectability close earlier in the summer months than they do in the others, the motive being, the weariness of the clerk who have to work long hours in a heated, and often vitiated atmosphere, during what is known among us as "the hot days."

There is, I am informed, a motion on foot among the employees, to present a petition to the merchants of this village, asking them to close their stores on Tuesday's, Wednesday's, Thursday's and Friday's at 7 o'clock, during the summer.

This, Mr. Editor, I am sure you will agree with me in saying is a very modest and reasonable request.

I have no doubt that the merchants of this village are either covetous or grudging, or in any way desirous to act but for the welfare and well-being of those who are in their service.

I may say, that I have myself interviewed one of our leading merchants, who says he sees no difficulty in granting the requests presented to him, and that he will acquiesce. Of course, when one closes, all should close, but I say, without fear of contradiction, that if but one merchant, and only one, in this town, should close up his store at seven, believing he is doing to his clerks as he would be done by, were he in their place, that man would be no loser. He would, in the first place, have the respect of the community, and secondly, the satisfaction of "a clear and quiet conscience," that he has helped to carry out one of the Divine ordinances.

If the citizens, Mr. Editor, would lend a helping hand, by determining that no account will they shop after the hour mentioned, the wrong of keeping open will soon right itself, and to the citizens, especially to the ladies, as direct enforcers of the law I appeal, to see that those who show, by early closing, that they worship God, and love their fellow man, shall meet with no unfair competition from those who do not.

Of course, Mr. Editor, I need not say that my observations do not apply to certain shops, such as druggists and ice-cream saloons.

FOURTH CONCESSION, TYENDINAGA.

May 28th, 1886.

From Our Own Correspondent.

It is seldom that we have a cyclone in our fair Dominion, though I believe they are common enough in the western states of America. Some of our oldest settlers, men of eighty years of age, never remember any thing to equal the great wind storm of the past week. It commenced in the south and then veered round to the west, sweeping through the streets of Melrose, though forunately not taking any houses with it as it moved along in its mad career. What astonished the people of Melrose, is that all parts of the township, Melrose, situated as it is, in a low and level part of the country, and completely surrounded by hills, should be chosen for a cyclone to sweep along howling and screaming as though the Old Man had let loose some of his imps from the lower regions. For it must be remembered that Melrose was early christianized and Christianity has made steady progress. As a proof of this assertion we may say, that in 1860 there was one small church and two large hotels; now things are reversed, as there are two large brick churches and only one hotel. It is then surprising that the people of Melrose, a law-abiding and church-going people, should have been so easily overcome to let a cyclone sweep along howling and screaming as though the Old Man had let loose some of his imps from the lower regions. For it must be remembered that Melrose was early christianized and Christianity has made steady progress. It is then surprising that the people of Melrose, a law-abiding and church-going people, should have been so easily overcome to let a cyclone sweep along howling and screaming as though the Old Man had let loose some of his imps from the lower regions. For it must be remembered that Melrose was early christianized and Christianity has made steady progress. As a proof of this assertion we may say, that in 1860 there was one small church and two large hotels; now things are reversed, as there are two large brick churches and only one hotel. ### CONCERNING MANITOBA.

Of the 60,000,000 acres which comprise the Canadian Province of Manitoba, they have surveyed sixteen and a half millions of acres. There 6,000,000 acres of swamp lands within the Province, and the remainder consists of timber and rocky region lying around

Lakes Winnipeg, Manitoba and Lake of the Woods. The portion under cultivation is a little over one million of acres, hitherto chiefly devoted to the cultivation of wheat, and up to the 31st of last October, the Department of the Interior reported about 10,930,

045 acres as having been taken up within the Province for homesteads and pre-emption.

By a recent arrangement made with the Province, the Dominion Government have ceded to the Province the swamp lands, and 150,000 of good land for University purposes.

The remarkable fertility of the soil on the prairie section, especially that in the valley of the Red River, is so well known that it is not necessary that I should refer to it here.

The winter climate, though generally severe in the latter part of December and through out January, is a subject of much disparage-

IN MEMORIAM

H. B. R.

Gone home to rest, his life work nobly done,

The toil all ended and the haven won,

Gone home to rest where care and trouble cease,

And Christ's beloved sleep in perfect peace.

Not dead, still living nearer God than we,

Knowing death's part in Christ the Lord.

And reaping in God's peace the full reward,

Of that true life he lived in Christ the Lord.

All the good seed he hath in secret sown,

Of kindly deeds to all but God unknown,

Now bear rich fruit, and yield a harvest bright,

Where moth can never mark or storm-cloud blight.

The Master called him who doth all things well,

"Thy Lord hath need of him," we may not tell

What changeless joy is his, we can but pray

Lord give us grace in his Lord's life brief day.

To live to Thee as did Thy servant dear,

Who hath departed in Thy faith and fear.

To live to Thee our Saviour and our Friend,

And on Thy love in life and death depend.

WEDDING BELLS AT SHANNONVILLE.

The Rev. J. F. FRASER, B. A., of Cryslar,

(formerly Incumbent of this parish) was married to Miss Ellen Solmes Appleby, of garrison of Trinity Church, on Wednesday,

June 2nd at 10.30 a.m. Rev. J. W. Burke, of St. Thomas' Church, Belleville, was the officiating clergyman. A number of spectators followed the wedding party to the church to witness the ceremony, and had it not been reported that the marriage was to be performed privately, the church would have been crowded to its utmost.

The bride was supported by sister, Miss Maude Appleby. They were handsomely and tastefully attired, the bride

wearing a traveling suit of lawn, elaborately trimmed with striped plush, with hat and gloves to match, which completed an exceedingly rich and dainty attire.

The bride was richly dressed in a darker shade which was very becoming. They each carried a bouquet in their hands. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Norman

Fraser, of Kingston. After the matrimonial knot was tied, the bridal party proceeded to the residence of the bride's parents to part

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Miss Libbie Peake left on Monday of last week to spend a few days with relatives in Kingston.
Miss Nettie Clark is visiting friends in Picton.
Mrs. Jas. Howell, of Brockway Centre, Mich., is visiting at her mother's, Mrs. Wm. Earle of this place.
Service was conducted in the Methodist Church Sunday evening last by two of our local brethren, Messrs. French and Parworth.
The wife of Mr. Wm. Brown, of Thurlow, died on Thursday morning last after a lingering illness. The funeral services were conducted in the M. Church on Friday being largely attended; her husband and children have the true sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

SOPHISBURG.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
A grand surprise party was given at Mr. Cornelius Benson's on the 3rd inst., it being for the purpose of celebrating Mr. B's birthday. A large party of friends and neighbors, including some from Napanee, Picton and other places from a distance arriving in squads, heavily laden with baskets of good things, which the ladies of Sophisburg are well known to prepare. They took the old couple quite by surprise as they knew nothing of it until they came on the scene of action. Tables were soon got ready and quickly were groaning under the load laid on them. It is needless to say that ample justice was done to that part of the banquet, showing that the efforts put forth by the ladies were fully appreciated. Mr. Benson is 72 years old; is hale and hearty and more boyish looking and acting than many of his friends not more than half his age. May he live to see many such gatherings.
Mr. Garrett Benson, one of the pioneers of Sophisburg, died at his son's residence on Monday, aged, I believe, 81 years. The old people are fast dropping out.
Conference in Picton has been all the talk for the past few days. Large crowds are continually to be seen either going or coming from town. The black broadcloth gentry are very numerous. I think Picton should be a good place after so much preaching.
We had a fine shower on Monday, not near enough to satisfy the parched earth; it turned very cold after and blew an awful gale.

MARYSVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mrs. B. McIntosh and children have been spending a couple of weeks with relatives and friends in Trenton.
Mrs. Barber, of Winnipeg, and Mrs. Corbin, of Pawling, N. Y., are visiting at the home of their father, Mr. Allison, in this village on Monday. He looks hale and hearty and reports things as running smoothly with him.
On Wednesday last week Mr. B. Burr, of Pawling, N. Y., was married to Miss Martha Allison, at the home of B. J. Allison, Esq., father of the bride. The young couple who have the good wishes of numerous friends went by way of Toronto and Niagara Falls to their future home in Pawling, N. Y. Mr. Allison and his wife have lived in the immediate neighborhood of their present home for about forty-seven years. They reared twelve children, six boys and six girls, of whom two boys and one girl have gone to "that bourne from whence no traveller ever returns." The remaining sons and daughters are married now and are older and thirty people, being worthy children of worthy parents. It is to be wondered at that the honest couple should experience a feeling of loneliness at the solitude of their doorway and watched their last child leaving the old homestead, and realized that they were again as they started together in life.
TYENDINAGA RESERVE.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Many are suffering from Pontiacia.
A team of horses owned by Mr. Albert Mark ran away on Monday of last week. Mr. Mark was driving the horses and soon found out that he could not overpower the animals. Mr. Mark received some injuries but not severe.
Prof. F. Crow and family departed on Saturday morning for Toronto to fill an engagement.
A pleasant Parlor Party was held at the Paragon on Thursday evening of last week.
Miss Lizzie Hill is suffering from a severe attack of illness.
On Saturday last Mr. Jacob Brant returned home from Onondaga, N. Y. State. Jake reports having good times while with the Yankees, and also says, "no Scott Act" over on the other side.
On Monday last Capt. W. Powles made a trip to Capt. John Island, with a load of colts where they were left for the summer's pasture; by John Topping two colts, A. Culbertson one, A. Mark one.
The concert which was held at the Council House on Wednesday evening was a success both to the hearers and finance. The Council Hall was packed and the musical department gave the highest satisfaction to the audience, which was largely shown by appreciative demonstrations and with many expressed wishes for another similar concert. Prof. Crow has agreed to comply with the wishes expressed by many a host. The first week in July when he and family will return to this part of the country to give us another concert.

TEAS, COFFEES AND GROCERIES AT SURPRISINGLY LOW PRICES AT THE BALLVILLE T. AND GROCERY HOUSE.
Death has again reached our peaceful shore. The funeral of Mrs. John Curlett took place at Mount Carmel on Wednesday the 2nd, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. J. Wilson, of Napanee, preached, being assisted by Rev. Mr. Seymour, of Thomasburgh. Mr. Wilson preached a very eloquent sermon to a very large audience, many of whom were mourners. The deceased lady was very largely connected in the county, where she has always resided. About 50 years ago she was united to her companion who survived her. They have brought up eleven children, all of whom are living, three at home and several in the neighborhood, and have kindly administered to her wants during her illness. Mrs. Warner, of Michigamew, was also present, making nine children and several grand-children to pay the last tribute of respect to their deceased parent. The remains were interred in their family plot in the 2nd concession. She was in her 71st year.
Mr. & Mrs. L. Vancleaf, of Athol, were guests of H. T. Carnan on Tuesday.
The Rev. Mr. Seymour and lady, of Thomasburgh, were the guests of Mr. L. Lyons during conference.
Mrs. Scott, of Athol, was visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Cole, the forepart of the week.
On Monday 31st, the Sophisburg Court, civil and criminal, was held in the Court House. The first question was discussed. Messrs. Welsh and Powles did not accept the corporation requirements.
Mr. & Mrs. A. Badgley, of Deseronto, made a flying visit to her former home here on Tuesday.
Mr. F. Drewry, of 2nd con., had a horse very badly hurt on Friday by coming in contact with the wire fence.
Harvey Allen also had a colt very badly lacerated on Tuesday.

GREEN POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
On the 31st inst., Thomas Keenan, of the 5th Con., died after a long illness, in the 88th year of his age. The deceased was an old resident and was buried in St. Charles Cemetery.
Miss Julia Hanley has been visiting friends in Percy.
Mr. Hanley, the Reeve, and Messrs. West and Milligan, Deputy Reeves have been attending the County Council during the past week.
The Rev. Father McCarthy left for Kingston on Tuesday. A mission is at present being held in the Catholic Parish there.
Mrs. West, of Belleville, is visiting Mrs. J. C. Hanley.
Mr. Neil Campbell having finished painting Mr. J. C. Hanley's residence is now painting the residence of the Rev. Father McCarthy.
Mr. & Mrs. James Walsh have been visiting friends in Madoc.
The Committee having the arrangements for the Grand Picnic to be held in Ranley's Grove on Thursday next the 17th inst., as already announced, have been busy making preparations. They have spared neither time nor expense in carrying out their plans. From all we hear we have no doubt, should the weather prove favorable, that the picnic will be the greatest and the most successful of the season. A full Brass Band will be in attendance and a string band for dancing. Prizes are offered for all kinds of sports. A Gold Watch will be awarded to the young lady, who has been most successful in selling tickets. Arrangements have been made for the care and feeding of horses on the ground and nothing will be left undone to afford every accommodation. The object of the picnic is to increase the fund for the building and improvement of the Church. Where the cause is so good, the attractions so great and the pleasure of meeting friends at such a rare opportunity, they will be sure to draw large crowds and we have no doubt that thousands will be in attendance.
The sad news of the death of the late Mr. Rathbun has been received with great regret throughout this community where the deceased gentleman was well known and his energy, ability and sterling worth were appreciated. The long and pleasant recollections of their early associations with Mr. Rathbun and trace their success in life to the start he gave them. The news of the long drive was beginning to tell on the crops but on Monday we had a few showers. These freshened everything but a good rain is badly needed. The Aurora Borealis was very bright on Friday and Saturday nights.

MACDONALD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Thos. McVain starts on Monday next to Hamilton to learn to run his new machine. May he have all success.
By the number of driving parties to be seen driving more weddings may be expected. Young men are getting scarce and girls ever more handsome. If you do not believe me come and see for yourself.
Our sick are rapidly recovering.
Our school has been conducted by Miss Carcullen to the entire satisfaction of the whole section.
The two Miller boys with their usual enterprise intended making extensive repairs on their new store.

Deseronto and Picton.

Mr. B. Huyek made himself the present of a new buggy, last Saturday. Mr. Philatus Seely is getting his all rigged over. "Shoo By."

Last Friday night Mr. E. Carcullen and his sister, our popular teacher, started for Napanee in a sail boat. At the mouth of the river a small struck the sail with such force as to knock Miss Carcullen into the water. Mr. Carcullen jumped in after her and by great exertion got her in again. But in getting in himself he upset the boat and there being two big stones in her for ballast she sunk partly down, but they managed to keep their head above water until Mr. Keelch and his son who had observed them came to their rescue just in time to save them as they had been in the water fifty minutes.

MELROSE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The Melrose eye is referred to by the fourth line correspondent though it may be a very witty get up has one great lack, viz., truth. Row number one has been told about. Well number two was considerable of a blow too, but the western blower was absent, so the others had a burst of courage and allowed they would finish him with clubs if he were there, and by three of them pitching on to thumper number one they managed to dislocate an elbow, and when this much abused fifty-eight year old fellow beat he was crippled, he was anxious to kick him to death and then was anxious to get at the westerner. And now comes number three. Shortly after noon the western man came to the village next day and allowed that he could thrash all that were engaged in the row the night before. As there was no person to take it up, he drove back to collect evidence to see if there was a chance to prosecute these abused people for slander. While sitting talking they saw this man go along, and the folks of the house said it was the old man and his two boys. They overlooked them, and the blower from the west jumped out and told him to get out if he thought he could thrash him; the man with the dislocated elbow never got out of the buggy. The row in the village afterwards caused considerable talk. As the old man had an overdraw belonging to the man with the lame elbow he took off the horse. The man with the dislocated elbow does not weigh any more than this "light" man from the "fourth." When the crowd collected at night the western blower "blowed" some more, and wanted some of them that wanted him the night before that was owing and there was another cyclone and he was ordered out of the house of course. There is not the least shadow of truth in the story, but that does not matter when telling it; and now there seems to be a calm after the storm.
A great many of the farmers in this village are having trouble put into their barns, two men went through the neighborhood last week putting them in.
The people are a little surprised at the effusion from the "fourth," as they had not been told it was coming. The correspondent got excited sometimes and tells them what to expect.

The Tribune.

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1886.
LOCAL ITEMS.

Fishing Tackle at Edgar's
The Orange Grand Lodge meets in Belleville next year.
We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. E. G. Hart, of the Gananoque Journal.

This town was full of strangers on Saturday, all the towns on the Bay furnishing their contingents.
A large number of our citizens attended the meetings of the Conference in Picton during the past week.

Mr. Evans has commenced work on the new building to be used as a carshop. It will be quite an extensive structure.

There was a large market on Tuesday morning, and farmers found little difficulty in disposing of their produce at satisfactory prices.

Mr. John Marrigan, Sr. has been busy all week installing Main-street from the Big Store to St. George's street. He is making a good job of his contract.

Crompton's Celebrated Corsets all new goods the best 50 cent corsets ever offered to the trade are now being shown at the BIG STORE.

Mr. GORR had an army of painters, calomineers and other renovators at work last Monday on the post-office, which wears a more pleasant appearance in consequence.

The N. T. & Q. Railway Company have placed $1,000 insurance on each of their employees. This amount will be given to the parents of Edward Smith, of Portsmouth, recently killed at Nanapan.

The sure effects of Ayer's Sarsaparilla are thorough and permanent. If there is a lurking taint of scrofula about you, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will dislodge it, and expel it from your system.

There are no new developments in the cheese market. Private clubs are discouraging, some canceling all unfilled orders, and the general tone inclines to weakness. Values remain unchanged.

A whicker dye must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance, and cheap in price. Burleigh's Dye for the Whickers unites in itself all these merits. Try it.

West's Pain King acts promptly, cures quickly. Never fails to cure bowel complaint, colic, cholera morbus, cholera. Costs 25 cents and is always ready. Enquire regarding the merits of W. G. Edgar, druggist.

This vote on the Home Rule Bill was awaited with great anxiety in Deseronto as elsewhere. It is but fair to state that the result was hailed with satisfaction by two-thirds of our citizens, who unanimously do not yet see eye to eye with this Tribune on this question.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer held last Saturday evening, resolutions expressive of the regret of the Board at the loss sustained by the congregation by the death of Mr. H. B. Rathbun were passed and ordered to be inscribed in the minute book.

West's World or Family Liniment is a remedy that no well regulated household should be without, as it is a positive cure for Rheumatism. It is invaluable for Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds and all diseases requiring external application. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. G. Edgar, druggist.

Rev. D. O. Crossley of the Methodist Church, Deseronto, has made arrangements to run his annual excursion to the 1,000 Island per Steamer Quinte on Saturday, Aug. 14th. Many who have joined Mr. Crossley in previous years have signified their intention of going again this year. Due notice and full particulars of Services at the Park will be given.

It will be seen in the Bay of Quinte Rally way time table this week that there is a change of time on several trains. No. 7 express going east (the noon train) leaves Deseronto now at 12:25 p. m. or five minutes later than formerly. No. 11 mixed going west leaves Deseronto at 9:00 p. m. or half an hour earlier than formerly. The mid-night train leaves at 12:40 a. m., five minutes later. The other changes affect the arrival of trains.

Remember the Grand picnic to be held at Hanley's Grove, near Head P. O. next Thursday, June 17th, in aid of the building fund of St. Charles Church, Tyndinaga. Arrangements have been made by the committee on a very extensive scale. A splendid programme of sports will be submitted and handsome and valuable prizes will be presented to successful competitors. Strangers will receive a cordial welcome and enjoy the well known hospitality of the members of the congregation.

CALL around to-morrow and settle that little bill at TIER TRADING OFFICE.

Batte City, Kansas, is now conceded to be the most wicked city in the world.

The Armenian took the Quinte's place on Monday on the Picton and Trenton route.

Mr. David Tait is building a boat of 30 feet for Mr. Robert Gaskin of Amherst Island.

President Cleveland did not follow the usual practice of kissing his bride immediately after the marriage ceremony, another proof of his good common sense.

Mr. A. D. Walker, pursuer of the Quint's, who has been ill during the past two weeks, is so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties. During his illness Mr. Ev. Ed wards acted in his place.

Mr. Jacob Maricle is putting up a very handsome fence on the front of his extensive lot on Main-street. It will greatly improve the appearance of things in that part of the town.

The Rathbun Company Band took possession of the school grounds on Monday evening and rendered a number of selections, which from that elevated position sounded very well in all parts of the town.

At the services in St. Mark's Church last Sunday, Rev. Rual Dean Stanton in very touching and appropriate terms referred to the melancholy event of the past week as evidenced by death claiming as its own the aged man of seventy-four and the infant of one short two weeks.

The Quinte carries an excursion from Belleville to Picton on Saturday evening the 12th inst. calling at all way ports. Leaves Belleville at 3:30 p. m., arrives in Deseronto at 5:30 p. m. and arrives in Picton about 7 o'clock. Returning leaves Picton at 8 o'clock. Tickets for this magnificent trip only 25 cents.

Remember we make a specialty of the Tea and Grocery business, our prices are always Rock bottom. Walmsley & Spafford.

Messrs. C. Wilmut, of the Newcastle fish hatchery, and Mr. Chas. Wilkins the local fishery overseer, have been stocking the lakes of North Deseronto with young fry, chiefly Salmon Trout. We trust this effort will be successful, though Mr. Wilmut's fish hatchery establishments in the Maritime Provinces, prove a dismal failure as far as stocking the rivers with salmon was concerned.

There has been a remarkable dearth of marriages in Deseronto during the past year and it is a long time since our editorial alms have been disturbed by the proverbial drum producing elixir of bridal cake. We have observed that our good friend Mr. McGaughey, the present locum tenens issuer of marriage licenses, has been wearing a reluctant countenance as he contemplated the expiration of his term of office without being enriched by the usual commission on fees. It is pleasing to hear that the young ladies are bestirring themselves, that several young men have been brought to time, and that within a few weeks quite a number of pleasing social events will probably be chronicled in these columns.

On Tuesday Mr. Chas. Leroy, living near Shannonville, noticed a fine young beaver cooking and giving signs of great distress. The animal seemed in such agony that it was expected to die. Mr. Leroy, thinking it may have swallowed something, seized it by the throat. After holding on for some time he released his hold when the beaver coughed violently, expelling a good sized, partially digested lizard. From the appearance of the remains of the lizard it had been in the habit of drinking at a low swampy place in the field.

It is reported from Ottawa that a scheme has been devised for removing the Indians settled upon Reserves in Ontario to the Northwest, and that the sanction of the Government will be asked for it. It is proposed that the present reserves shall be sold for the benefit of the Indian tribes, at the same time granting to Indians free tracts of land in the Northwest to which they would be removed. In this way it is claimed that the condition of the Indians would be greatly improved, as the annual interest upon the proceeds of the sale of their present lands would be sufficient to maintain them, while the reserves in the Northwest would be as good if not better than those in Tyndinaga elsewhere. Such is the scheme which is at present, it is said, being discussed. We interviewed Chief Sampson Green of the Indian Reservation at Deseronto, and he is in favor of the scheme, there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Guts, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Mr. T. Reach, Jr., offers a handsome shell boat for sale.

Mr. John Berry is adding a considerable extension to his house on Green-street.

The Picnic at Hanley's Green-street Thursday is the latest topic of conversation at present. Every body is going.

Mr. John Dalton is having a great run for his new, cheap, and handsome picture frames. Call and see them.

The Reeve has been attending the meeting of the County Council, of whose proceedings we will give a report next week.

This semi-annual meeting of the N. & D. L. O. L. of South Deseronto will be held in the Orange Hall, Deseronto, on Tuesday 15th inst. at 2 p. m.

Walmesley & Spafford have at last got their deserts, having been sentenced to a rash of patronage which is a grand testimony to their advertising enterprise.

The County Court in session, Daniel Goodman was fined one hundred dollars and sentenced to two months imprisonment for having an illicit still in his possession.

Mr. Haykins has laid out the grounds and finished all the draining operations in connection with the residence of Mr. F. S. Rathbun which is progressing very rapidly.

Messrs. R. M. Jack and S. B. Clark go to Belleville to-morrow to attend the meeting of the Central Committee to make arrangements for the grand demonstrations on the glorious 14th inst.

The BIG STORE has just received direct from London, England, a second consignment of the celebrated Grain de Sues and the County Court in session, Daniel Goodman was fined one hundred dollars and sentenced to two months imprisonment for having an illicit still in his possession.

Rev. W. W. Lloyd, of Warsaw, preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening two impressive and eloquent sermons. Mr. W. R. Aylsworth acted as Superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. Richardson being in Picton at the meeting of the Conference.

New lines in Children's Waists and Corsets at the Big Store.

As usual the BIG STORE is first to offer New Crop (1886) Japan Teas. These Teas will be found to be the finest possible to secure, being the choicest of the season, very fragrant, fancy and possessing fine cup qualities; by purchasing at this establishment you avoid the mustiness, brown color and offensive flavor which often are found in old teas.

LOCAL TRAIN.—For the benefit of the Travelling Public and to afford accommodation to the people of Deseronto, a mixed train leaves the R. R. Depot every morning at 7:45 for Kingston. Parties can go to Kingston or Nanapan and back same day having about twelve hours in Nanapan and four in Kingston. Low rates of Fare, Kingston and return, $2.20. Nanapan and return, 50 cents.

The work of improving the premises occupied by Messrs Walmesley & Spafford in the Smith Block has commenced, being under the direction of Messrs Smith & Stroker, of Smithfield. The floor will be lowered to a level with the boardwalk, a large door made on the corner and a plate glass front put in. This will make it one of the best looking shops in Deseronto.

The Oddfellows Committee are meeting with wonderful success in their efforts to make the grand Dominion Day picnic a success. The prizes for the different events, including ball-headed men's race, will be very large. Plenty of good music, fine dancing platforms, and no end of refreshments. The ladies of the different churches will be provided dinner—and such a dinner. Success assured.

Mr. David Stoddard, of Edinburgh, Scotland, has placed us under great obligations by kindly forwarding a handsome souvenir of the International Exhibition of Industry, Science and Art now in progress in that city. It contains also a handsome series of views of the modern Athens, which is by all odds the most handsome city in the empire.

The proceedings of the recent meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference were very harmonious and interesting. The different reports showed marked progress all along the line and demonstrated the fact that Methodism still retains all its old fire and aggressiveness. The Stationing Committee made no changes as far as Deseronto is concerned and Rev. Mr. Crossley will, as all are pleased to join, continue in charge of the congregation in this place.

The grand picnic of the Roman Catholic congregation of Deseronto will be held on Dominion Day in Black's grove a most beautiful and central locality for such an event. The Committee have determined to make it a month affair, to far exceed all former efforts. The prizes will be very numerous and valuable. Good music will be provided, and as assurances of patronage are coming in from all sections of the district there is little doubt that the attendance will be numerous. Visitors will find a cordial welcome.

The Early Closing Committee have met with most encouraging success, all but one or two shop-keepers having responded to their call. The new movement goes into operation next Tuesday, shops closing at seven o'clock on every day of the week except Monday and Saturday. The Ladies have pledged themselves to complete all purchases before seven o'clock, and the work-ing-men of Deseronto sympathizing with their fellow employees, the clerks, will see that no injustice is done to those who comply with the new system of things. So note it be.

The Bay of Quinte Canning Factory at Picton was totally destroyed by fire with all the machinery and stock, including 250,000 new cans, last Wednesday morning. Loss $15,000, insured for $10,000. Mr. Boulter, who has universal sympathy, has with woe-bled pluck decided to rebuild immediately. Could not Deseronto make an effort to secure this industry?

IN MEMORIAM

H. B. R.

Deseronto's heart is heavy, she mourns her

dearest son,

They have laid him down to rest, his share of duty done;

His work is completed he has crossed the dark cold stream,

The largest human life is but the memory of a dream,

The dropping of the pebble the waters wide conceal,

Unless there remains to us some work the world can feel;

And what is left around us will green his memory keep.

For the seed that he has sown is the grain that we now reap.

St. Paul's stately pile is the monument of

Wren,

Their books are memorials of great and gifted men;

The thoughts of glorious battles won by the strong and brave,

Keep the names of heroes from mouldering in the grave.

When we see this busy town with its ever growing life,

Raised by his enterprise and the force of his will,

He has not lived in vain or for himself alone.

A kingdom the busy world and industry

his throne.

His heart and feeling, his mind serene and clear,

His actions true and honest, his friendship

all sincere,

The best affection that round a family

clings,

Cannot be touched by other hands, they are too precious things.

'Tis for to lament the man that all our world knew.

For them to feel the holy ties known to the chosen few.

Deseronto's heart is heavy, she mourns her

dearest son,

Though she feels the angels whispering,

"Servant of God well done."

BETHEL.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Where is Bethel post-office, is a question I have been frequently asked, and the information of those of our readers who do not know I would say, that Bethel is on the Pictou and Deseronto road, seven miles from the former, and two miles from the latter, in what is known as the Bethel neighborhood. I might here say, we are one of the best parts of the country, and one to judge from appearances, would say it was a prosperous neighborhood. There are three fine brick residences going up this summer. Mr. John Robinson is the worthy postmaster, whose smiling face we are pleased to see. He is always very obliging and ready to wait on all who come.

Master Burr Barrow and sister, of Deseronto, are visiting friends here; but, Editor, I am called away, and will have to leave the rest for next week.

SHANNONVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss A. Forward from near Kingston has been the guest of her cousin Miss L. Foster, and Mrs. L. Foster left on Tuesday last to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Letitia Mills, of Big Island.

Mr. E. A. Van der Horst, of Deseronto, spent last Tuesday in our village.

Mr. L. E. Mills, Hardware merchant, of this place is about to erect a residence which will cost him well to $10,000, and to the appearance of the place.

We noticed in the 4th con. items, the correspondent speaking of the "Cyclone" which swept through Melrose a short time ago, saying, if it had struck Shannonville they would not have been surprised. We would very much like to know their meaning, as we never have breezes of that kind here except when outsiders come in from Melrose or the 4th con.

MARYSVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Ed. McGurn returned from Ottawa last week. Ottawa must be a healthy city to live in judging by Mr. McGurn's appearance. He did not look as if the Kiel question had worried him much.

Mrs. Corbin left here for her home in Pawling, N. Y., on Monday last.

Mr. E. G. Stoughton, who has been living in the vicinity of Peterson's ferry for some time removed to Lindsay this week.

Mr. Fox and wife were driving across the G. T. R. track here, Thursday morning of last week, when the horse got his hoof caught between the rails, and the fall, causing him to be thrown down violently and causing the buggy to upset and the occupants to be thrown on the track. Neither Mr. Fox nor wife sustained any injury, but the horse which was a valuable one is badly wounded.

A couple of masked rogues amused themselves again on night last, by annoying an old woman named Cooper. It cannot be anything short of sheer devilry that prompts such rascals to annoy the aged, but that such fellows do not show their hands in daylight so that their identity might be discovered in order that they could be dealt with according to law.

DEMORESTVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Nettie Clarke, the organist of the Methodist church, Shannonville, is on a visit to the parsonage here.

Cupid, the little god of love, has made a capture recently on Big Island, Mr. Williams, of the township of Rawdon, was united in the holy matrimony on Wednesday morning to Miss Letitia Mills, granddaughter of Thos. Mills, Esq., of Big Island. Miss Mills is held in high esteem not only in the home circle, but in the larger social circle of which she has been an ornament, and on entering on the responsibilities of domestic life will have the hearty goodwishes of all classes.

Mr. Verden, son-in-law of Mr. John Crawford, of the Bethel neighborhood, was brought home a corpse last week, and was interred in the family burying ground in the neighborhood. The funeral was attended by sympathizing friends, and an appropriate sermon was preached by Mr. McKinnon, of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Verden's last illness was of short duration. He has left behind him a wife and five young children, leaving their irreparable loss.

GRENA.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The farmers around here are almost at a stand still waiting for something to turn up, to rather the rain to come down. The land is so hard and dry it is almost impossible to plough.

Our worth pathmaster has been repairing the highways. The neighbors turned out and helped to us to have a good track for the boys.

Ennour has it the young man from Kingston, who has been here for a long time, is likely to reduce our population. We are always sorry to lose any; but then it is the last of the young men.

Our village is quite healthy at present. The sick are so far recovered as to be able to attend to their duties. Mrs. Mellow is able to be out about her house, and is likely to be well, while Mrs. Hamby is so far recovered as to come on the farm again.

Our Phoenix Cheese Factory has started out in full blast. The cheese is gathered from Grenna, Macdonald, Bardsley, Hay Bay, and Gosport. Hay Bay manufactures white Grenna in the market. The cheese of the finest quality, and are widely known throughout our business centres at Deseronto and Montserrat. The cheese is eagerly sought after, oftentimes more than realizing cable quantities.

Miss Anne F. Grigg, of Canadara, is spending a few weeks at her uncle's W. J. Mellow's.

The largest variety of Tobaccos and Cigars in town is at Bruton's. See his large jambo plug of chewing at 15cts. or two for 25cts.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Corrigan has sold the May make of the Albert and Niagara Cheese Factories in two lots at 7 cents and 6 cents respectively. The last lot was shipped last week.

Miss McCarthy, sister of the Rev. Father McCarthy, arrived from Ireland last week on a visit to her brother.

Mr. Donald McCrea is now working on the road in this division with a large gang of men. He is at present working on the side road near Marysville.

The great picnic takes place to-morrow (Thursday) in Hanley's Grove. Full particulars next week.

Your able and gifted correspondent on the fourth concession has been creating quite a stir with his quiet and peaceful community of Bachelor's Walk was almost disturbed lately, not by a cyclone, but by a genuine tornado. One of our distinguished mechanics was engaged shooting in the woods of a neighboring squire. Being armed with a Winchester rifle he thought he would aim at a blackbird perched on the top of a high tree at a great distance. He missed the bird, but the branch on which it was perched. The blackbird flew and warned a friendly whip-crowd to be on the look out for the Winchester rifle. While the sportsman was thus engaged, it appears that the noise of the firing alarmed an excitable, nervous and highly excitable person in the neighborhood. The squire, becoming alarmed, rushed over to our neighbor the squire to complain of noise shooting in his woods to the danger of the community. While this interview was going on the distinguished marksman appeared on the scene rifle in hand. The excited individual, who was the sportsman with murder and all the crimes in the catalogue. A cyclone, rather a tornado I should say, seemed imminent. The squire at length interfered and ordered the offender off his grounds, much to the amusement of the sportsman and the community. When the people give full play to their imaginations they think that they are boycotted, and that people got Winchester rifles for the sole purpose of firing through whip-crowds and the sooner they get to the lunatic asylum the better.

The long continued drought is becoming a serious matter for the country. The old meadows are all withered up and even new meadows will give but a scant crop of hay unless we have rain. The crops are all getting scorched up from the continuous dry weather and in many places the result will be disastrous if rain does not come soon. Almost every day during the past week it appeared as though it was going to rain, but the clouds broke away and the weather continued as before. As I close my dispatch, the sun is shining and the long delayed rain. It is quite refreshing to see our eligible young men with their fine ladies and handsome top buggies driving around their lady friends these fine glorious evenings. Some happy events, we have no doubt we shall be called on to chronicle in the not far distant future. We trust that Deseronto will see the sun again have marriage bells ringing.

Bruton leads, others follow. He is doing more and more business every day because he has every thing that is wanted every day; A large and well selected stock always fresh and at low prices.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Many years ago a school was set up for its rows (or as you say) this concession corresponds (it Cyclones) and in those days faction fights were of a common occurrence, but of late years our village has been known as a quiet and law abiding community.

One evening recently some parties from the north were about having a regular fight at the west end of this village in regular Donnybrook style. Fortunately for the peace of the community a well known and popular Reverend Gentleman drove up at the time and scattered the contending armies.

Two of our respective neighbors started for the North West on Monday last by the C. P. R. expecting to travel about 2,000 miles.

Frank McCullough, son of Michael McCullough, whose health for a time has been bad, is traveling in hopes of improving it, we hope he may have a pleasant voyage and return home with a party of friends a sound and healthy young man. He is accompanied by Mr. Thos. McCullough, the son of the late Michael McCullough, who is visiting the journey in his old age to visit his brothers and sisters who left here and went to Manitoba a few years ago to make that country their home, they expect to stop at Winnipeg a short time, after which they will visit several cities and other places of interest.

We hear the young people and friends of the Church of England at Kingsford have arranged to have a grand picnic in the grove near that place on the 24th inst. and as they have a very efficient committee no doubt it will be a very pleasant and joyous time; a large gathering is expected and no one will be spared to give satisfaction and make it a success.

Mr. John E. Sevensmith, one of our old and respected citizens, who has for a long time suffered from the fatal disease, cancer, was released from his bodily afflictions on Wednesday afternoon the 9th inst. by death.

While his family and numerous friends were at his bedside he passed calmly away without a struggle. The funeral was attended on Friday morning by a large gathering of friends and relations of the old Church of the Indian Reserve and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at said Church.

Mr. Chas. Kinch is also leaving three barns down and building greater. He is bound to protect his grain and have comfortable quarters for his stock.

Mrs. Sarah Foote just after arriving here to visit her brother, Donald McKay, and old friends, received the sad news by telegraph of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Bell Hurup, of Florida, and returned home to Deseronto in great grief. Mrs. Foote has the sympathy of her many friends in Lonsdale here for her loss.

Mrs. Jane Martin, of Deseronto, is visiting at her father's, John Bruin; also Miss Alice Aylsworth and Miss Mary Hogart from Pictou are visiting at Mr. Bruin's.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

The County Council met at Belleville on Tuesday, 8th inst. The Warden in his opening address congratulated members on the reduction of the county debt of late years from $80,000 to between $50,000 and $60,000. A large batch of communications and petitions were then read referred to the committee on the petition of the administration of justice. The City of Belleville during Mr. Ashley's charge against $3,000 annually as its share. On motion the thanks of the council were tendered to the committee for the satisfactory manner in which they had conducted proceedings, and effected a settlement. The committee on supplies for county officials and on county buildings submitted a report recommending some repairs, &c. Mr. Ashley, seconded by Mr. Hanley, moved his resolution recommending the reduction of the Treasurer's salary from $1,500 to a smaller sum. The motion was subsequently referred to the committee on by-laws. The committee appointed to investigate the charges preferred against Treasurer Wells submitted their report through Mr. W. R. Aylsworth. The report was unanimous in sustaining Mr. Ashley's charges against Mr. Wells for not advertising sales in both papers; for not paying the Reeve of Hungerford the $610, when he called for it, as he did the $750 the year before; and that he also did wrong in buying land sold by himself for taxes. The other charges by Mr. Ashley were not sustained. In reference to Mr. Hanley's charges, the committee held that Mr. Wells had conducted the sale of Tyndin lands according to law and had no intention to mislead Mr. Hanley, and secondly that he did issue and cause to be distributed certain circulars to influence the last municipal elections in Tyndin. The report was adopted. On Thursday morning several applications were received from county officials asking for increased salaries. The Gravel Road Committee reported that $5,228 had been expended up to June 1st on account of gravelled roads chiefly for banking gravel; that the estimated expenditure for the balance of the year was $6,873.06 making the total, $12,101.06; that the superintendent deserves much credit for the character of work done. The report was adopted. Mr. Ashley reported that the deputations to Toronto had been successful in obtaining an appropriation of $5,000 for the new law courts; the warden presented a statement of receipts and expenditures of the County from the 1st of January to the 30th of June 1886. The receipts were $36,066.64, expenditure $35,038. The sinking fund amounted to $28,253. The arrears of taxes in arrears amounted to $18,000, and nearly $4,000. The council was moved into a committee of the whole on equalization. Mr. W. R. Aylsworth moved that the equalization remain the same as that of 1885, a discussion followed. Mr. Hanley asking for a reduction of $100,000 for Tyndin. Mr. Aylsworth's motion was carried. The equalization of Tyndin lands is $1,900,000 and Deseronto $150,000 out of a total of $1,101,000.

Mr. Hanley moved that copies of the revised statutes of Ontario be secured for members of the council, and his motion was carried. On motion the Mr. W. R. Aylsworth an appropriation of $500 was made to the Quinte district fair, and on motion of the same gentleman two acres of Hon. Bill Plunk's grave pit at Belleville was purchased for $300. W. R. Perry received $100 for injuries sustained by the giving away of the Grandford bridge and John Hargrave was voted $80. H. O'Rourke $10 and two Brants $3 each for the Marysville road disaster. The motion to increase the salary of the gaoler and gaol surgeon was lost, as was also the motion to reduce the allowance to councillors.

On Friday the Committee on estimates reported the estimated expenditure for 1886 to be $50,680, about $7,000 less than last year, rate on the dollar 4 mills. A by-law to appoint a game inspector for the northern township very properly received the six months' notice. The Bridge and Public Buildings Committee report having spent $3,007 to date and the proposed expenditure $9,000, of which $2,000 is for a bridge at Shannonville. The fee for peddlers on foot was made $20 with one horse $40, two horses $50. It was decided to secure a resident short-hand reporter for County Court. The annual grant of $600 was made to the northern municipalities as a poor fund. After a long discussion a by-law reducing the Treasurer's salary by $500, the amount allowed for an assistant, was carried. It was resolved to spend $5,000 on county roads out side of gravel roads. Tyndin lands receives $600, and Deseronto $100 of this amount. The auditors reported the Treasurer's account as neatly and accurately kept. It was decided to petition the Government to group counties for the purpose of locating therein preliminary hospitals for lunatics. It was resolved that County printing be let by tender. The usual grant was given W. C. A. for a hospital. The council adjourned until the last Tuesday in November.

HALL'S Hair Renewer

Vegetable
Stimulant
Acts directly on the scalp and on the roots of the hair. It prevents falling of the hair, dandruff, or any disease of the scalp, restores gray hair to its original color, and, where the glands are not decayed, will cause new hair to grow on bald heads. A diseased scalp caused my hair to fall out. After using a number of preparations, without avail, I tried Hall's Hair Renewer, which caused a new and vigorous growth."—E. J. Adams, St. Paul, Minn.
Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS

Will color the beard brown or black, as may be desired. It is in one preparation, cheap, safe, convenient to use, and effectual, giving to the whiskers or mustache a permanent and handsome color. West's World or Family Liniment, is a remedy that no well regulated household should be without, as it is a positive cure for Rheumatism. It is invaluable for Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds and all diseases requiring external application. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. E. Gagar, druggist.

For constitutional or scrofulous catarrh, and for consumption induced by the scrofulous taint, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the true remedy. It has cured numerous cases. It stops catarrhal discharges, and removes the sickening odor from the secretions.

The need of merit for promoting personal neatness is due to J. C. Ayer & Co., whose Hair Vigor is a universal beautifier of the hair. Harmless, efficacious, and free from rank odorous ingredients of the toilet. To exalt looks it gives luxuriance; and withered hair it clothes with the hue of youth.

In Australia shops are forbidden by law to remain open after seven o'clock in the evening for five days of the week, and after ten on Saturdays. In England there is an agitation for a local option closing law which will allow municipalities to close shops under certain conditions. Canada may be expected to fall into line about fifty years hence.

Mr. Samuel Croft, gardener at the Rathbun homestead, is excellently equipped by reason of a magnificent display of fruit, flowers and vegetables which amply repay the visitor to the handsome grounds. With favorable weather he expects to gather two thousand quarts of strawberries. His samples of this fruit are splendid. A visit to the graperies shows that establishment to be kept in first-class condition, many of the clusters being very large indeed.

Try our extracted Honey warrant-ed pure, Walmsley & Spafford.

Mr. John McRiggin, Jr., was in Belleville on Monday and Tuesday on business. The Rathbun Company intend building a large store house at Cox Hill this summer for the accommodation of their shanties on the Scott's limit.

Mr. H. Clay Jeffers now receives oil men, hardware drummers and coal speculators in almost royal style in the office lately occupied by Mr. James A. Davis.

West's Pain King acts promptly, cures quickly. Never fails to cure bowel complaint, colic, cholera morbus, cholera, but 25 cents and is always ready. Enquire regarding its merits of W. E. Gagar, druggist.

Mr. Wm. Ferguson, of the Ferguson House, has masons at work strengthening the foundation and supports of his hotel. It is his intention to add another story to it this summer thus making it ten feet higher than at present.

SOME farmers have been cutting meat on the farm to undue extent, but the Clerk has notified them that this objectionable practice must cease or penalties will be inflicted.

One of the great wants of Deseronto at present is a boat lawyer. Gentlemen find it impossible to get a boat for love or money these evenings. Who will take up this business; there's millions in it.

Mr. J. T. Groat took advantage of the early closing movement on Tuesday evening by going out for a row in a big yawl. J. T. Groat is an advocate of rowing who will yet make a splash in aquatic circles.

EVERY person acknowledges that Mr. Jacob Maricle made the hit of the season by the erection of that ornate fence. Its appearance is slightly marred by its termination against that drive house which misgives the O'Connor House will probably shatter by about ten feet.

Mr. Robert Pearson is making steady progress with his double tenement house on Mill street.
Mr. R. N. Irvine has put up a capacious woodshed and Messrs. Robert Blake and Peter Colp have also been adding several out buildings to their premises.

While Mr. John T. Paul was cutting some cedar blocks in the Cedar Mill the axe glanced cutting his wrist very severely. It was stitched by Drs. Newton and Clinton. He is about on the gall of blood.

New lines in Kid and Silk Gloves just opened at THE BIG STORE.

Capt. Anderson has made two trips with the "Armenia" to Brookville and Gananoque this week with large freights of flour and shingles. He had a brush with the "Gipsy" coming up the bay but failed to score a success.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Mark's Church will probably hold their fancy fair and strawberry festival during the first or second week in July. Be prepared for a pleasant time.

Messrs. Wm. Deane and Thos. Bowen have rigged out the yacht "Union Jack" in fine style. They found out, however, the other evening as they came in at the tail end of a procession that she still lacks speed.

Mr. T. Roach Jr., and a number of assistants were out to Black's grove several evenings this week making preparations for the Grand Picnic to be held there on Dominion Day in aid of the building fund of the Roman Catholic Church. Splendid musical talent next Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian School Room.

The Napane Broom Brigade, assisted by the famous Aikward Squad of the same place will give a grand concert and parade in the Presbytery on Sunday, 22nd inst. A large excursion party will accompany them from Napane. The Napane papers refer to their having never before seen a big tree bearing fruit in this part of the country.

On Monday, Judge Frailek, Revising Officer for East Hastings, held his court for the final revision of the voters' list for Deseronto. The proceedings were singularly harmonious and altogether devoid of party acrimony. The representatives of the two political parties came to a preliminary understanding which left but little for the revising officer to do. A few names were struck off and a small number added and both sides seem to be quite satisfied. The agents speak highly of the courtesy and fair play which Judge Frailek exercised in his rulings on this occasion.

Mr. Luke Murphy left for Michigan on Monday to take a position there.

A large number of new plank crossings on the railway tracks have been laid down in the yard department during the past week.

On Tuesday evening Mr. M. D. Campbell, while out practicing in his shell, made the feat at time over made on this section of the Bay of Quinte.

The most graceful diver improver is the "Pettie" price only 50 cents at THE BIG STORE.

Mr. Ed. Bruyve was the successful man in the drawing the quilt got up for the benefit of Mrs. Bevette. The sum of $26.25 was realized for the benefit of the poor women.

Mr. David Bruleshaw is the owner of a bon voyage measuring 85 1/2 and weighing 40 lbs. except when a wind or gale continues several days from the east, and at the termination of the easterly gale is stronger in its intensity.

PARNELL states that he would not accept a local legislature for Ireland such as we have in Ontario. He has probably heard remarks about our own legislative assembly and present nervous Reform administration.

The Rathbun Company Band turned out in uniform on Thursday evening last to serenade Mr. Clark Mallory, one of their number, who had quietly assumed the matrimonial yoke the previous evening. A vast concourse of citizens assembled to hear the music.

ANY British subject who is twenty-one years of age may become premier of Great Britain or the Dominion of Canada even if he does not possess one dollar's worth of property. He cannot, however, become a candidate for the position of reeve or councillor in a one horse town or legislative assembly without some considerable property qualification. Is it not time this anachronism should cease?

All the journals have been taking stock of the state of the late sessions of the Dominion Parliament. There is a happy consensus of opinion among members of the press, the verdict being practically unanimous that never was corruption more rampant nor bribery of members and constituents more unobscuringly conspicuous than during the session now happily closed.

It is not often that we find those two great exponents of political opinion the Globe and Mail agreeing on a matter of political importance. At present, however, they are uniterous for different reasons in opposing and ridiculing Imperial Confederation. The Globe opposes because it clashes with its views of Canadian independence and reciprocal trade with the United States. The Mail, as the organ of the manufacturers of Canada, objects because under Imperial Confederation, British goods, admitted under reduced duties, would completely overthrow its National Policy of Protection.

The annual Report of the Inspector of Division Courts for 1885 show that in Deseronto Court No. 7, of the county of Hastings the number of suits entered exclusive of transcripts of judgments and judgment summonses was 125, the amount of claims entered being $3,253.41. LOCAL TRAIN.—For the benefit of the Travelling Public and to afford accommodation to the people of Deseronto, a mixed train leaves the R. R. Depot every morning at 7:45 for Kingston. Owners of geese should not allow those birds to wander round the streets and foul the boardwalks. Pedestrians complain of this and want a goose by-law.

We are informed that gambling is greatly on the increase more particularly among the young men of the village. No vice is more pernicious, as none tend more effectually to weaken the finer sensibilities of the human heart. The gambler is admittedly the most selfish of men.

As yet no trees have been set out on First-street. Would it not be well for the people on that avenue to observe an Arbor Day and remedy that defect. Action in that line would both increase the value of the property as well as improve the appearance of things in that part of the town.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, gives tone and energy to the whole system.

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

LOCAL ITEMS

A lot of Travellers' Samples of Hosiery cheap at the Big Store.

During the past year 15,000 members have been added to the Methodist Church in Canada.

LARGE quantities of strawberries are brought into town each day and prices have fallen to a low figure.

Don't permit yourself to enter another year in the history of our fair Dominion without having paid your subscription to THE TRIBUNE for 1886.

Mr. James Kimmerly last week sent us in a good sample of new potatoes grown in his garden. They are the first that we have seen this season.

THE Star. Her carried an excursion of the Belleville Knights of Labor to Glenora last Friday.

A band of so-called gipsies have been camped on the Napanee road during the past few days. They seem to deal chiefly in tinware.

This sloop Bungee, Capt. Stokes, has been carrying sand from a point down the beach to Deseronto for building operations.

We can rest assured now that summer is with us as the man taking order for shirts is around and don't you forget it.

If you want to buy a cheap book, cheap newspaper and envelopes, ink, pens, and pencils, then go to THE TRIBUNE office.

AN important question has you paid for this copy of THE TRIBUNE which you are perusing with satisfaction.

Now Scotians must admit that they have derived some advantage from their union with the upper provinces. They have learned the noble art of stealing ballot boxes.

The new sewer on the east side of Fourth street is nearly completed. It is not well to run another drain down the centre of that street in order to make the drainage complete.

SUNDAY being the anniversary of the accession of the Queen to the throne and opening of the fiftieth year of her reign, the special prayers and psalms were read in Church on Sunday.

The national anthem sung at the close of the services.

CHURCH S. Green expects to leave for England about the first week in July on his mission to collect funds for the Indian Churches on the Mohawk Reserve. He has received his credentials from his Lordship the Bishop of Ontario. We trust he will be successful and have a pleasant voyage.

STRONG committees have been appointed by the congregations on the Reserve to make arrangements for the mammoth picnic to be held in September.

It is determined to make this the greatest event of the kind ever held in this district. The proceeds will be devoted to relieving the pauperage, a laudable undertaking.

THE Rathbun Company's drive of logs and timber on the Salmon River is making good progress considering the low state of the river.

It is estimated that a few days ago that it would be almost impossible to bring this large drive through, but under the able supervision of that veteran manager, Tobias Butler, we feel reasonably certain that the logs will be safely delivered in the boats at Deseronto.

AT THE close of his sermon last Sunday evening, Rev. R. O. Carter, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, referred to the fact of that day being the 49th anniversary of her Majesty's accession to the throne.

In eloquent and pathetic terms he referred to the virtues which have ever distinguished her as maiden, wife, mother and queen, and by which she has been endeared in the affections of all classes of her subjects.

The congregation then united in singing the National Anthem.

Several complaints have been lodged at this office in reference to the indecent practice, which many boys indulge in, of bathing at all hours of the day on the shore of Deseronto and the Mohawk River.

This is especially objectionable to people going to church on Sundays and we are requested to use our influence with the proper authorities to apply a remedy.

At the same time we are also requested to direct their attention to the habit of card-playing and gambling indulged in by many Indians and whites on the roadside leading to the Church on the same day. We have no doubt the Indian council will endeavour to put a stop to these objectionable practices so offensive to worshippers at Christ Church.

ABOUT noon on Wednesday, 23rd inst., Mr. CHARLES DRYDEN, one of the oldest residents and best known citizens of Deseronto, passed away in the 54th year of his age.

Oh, he cried I am—how utterly weary of the journey! I wish the train would rush on to Idlehurst and never mind intermediate stations, and perhaps Aberdonians will wish that at Idlehurst. Here some one else gets in, also of the masculine gender, and also glances at me with an apology not quite so courtly as the first. He drops into the first corner he comes to, and sits pulling his moustache and looking as if he were tired to death and very much displeased with something. He is young and well dressed—remarkably so, and he wears a ring—diamond and very bright and clear, though I do not transfix me as that ruby did; perhaps there's a flaw in it. But I study the

"But Jack isn't a young man," I cry, emphasising every second word. "He's Jack, and it would be very odd if I didn't admire him and like him ever so much."

Aunt Pricilla asks him to stay to tea; he declines, and, indeed, takes the opportunity of making a grimace at me; then he runs his fingers over the keys of the piano, turns over my portfolio, says my music is old as the hills, and that he will send me some new

From Our Own Correspondent.
Mr. Franklin Gehorn is on the sick list. J. Frank has another con story to add to his list of stories. He caught an old con and three or four young cons in a free within a few rods of his house; and there are a couple of cons up the road he has an eye on.

Mr. A. VanDusen was very agreeably surprised last week by receiving a visit from his aged parents of Brighton.
Mr. Martin Wood claims he is ahead on the question, as he is owner of a pair of shoes that have laced 40 eggs and hatched 18 goldling this season. If Martin has any daughters there will be a chance for some young man to feather his nest.

HAY BAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Well, Mr. Editor, I suppose you have been waiting patiently for correspondence from Hay Bay. I am here at last, but only to acquaint you and others again of a certain fashion (mentioned in your paper last winter) which has spread more than ever around this country. The happy religious dance which took place on Tuesday last, a new house in Hay Bay, kept up our pious young ladies and gentlemen until morning the next day. Oh! I must not call them ladies and gentlemen, but use the more appropriate words dancing-bobs, who generally got to sleep as fresh in the morning the death of a loved one just gone before, and to give a good reputation to a house, it is finished. Well, all young folks, I really thought you had lowered yourselves quite as much as you wished to last winter, and I gave you good advice to keep back from similar occurrences, but as I see it has not been taken I will give another. The next time a dance occurs just take your souls into consideration and omit that of your feet and violin, and your characters will be left in a fit state to be criticized. I with my friends wish to congratulate the carpenter employed in building Mr. Bell's house for the fast progress they are making. I am pleased to make mention of the fact that the Rev. J. E. Robson, our pastor of Hay Bay, is to remain on this circuit another year, and we sincerely wish that he will be as pleased to remain as we are to receive him again as our clergyman. Fishing turns out to be a success this season, and many are wishing it will remain so.

NORTHPORT.

From Our Own Correspondent.
Miss W. E. Wilson is visiting at Mr. W. H. Wilson's.
Miss L. Anderson, of Rosamere, is visiting friends here.
Miss John D. Vincent, of Coc Hill, is visiting friends here.
Miss Williamson, of Picton, has been visiting friends for the past few days.
Mr. A. A. Benson, of Watrous Engine Works, Branford, is visiting with his father and mother here.
Miss Brian of Belleville, is visiting at Mr. John Baker's, the guest of Mrs. B. R. Velever.
Northport base ball club was defeated by Deseronto club on the 10th, but our boys say they will make the table turn the next time, as it was very close.
Work has been completed on our new church for the waft of material not coming from the factory at Belleville. It really seems too bad that the carpenters have to lay idle for such slovenly and carelessness on the part of the factory and contractor. The brick work had been completed some time ago, and it certainly is a credit to Mr. Booth the contractor of that part of the building.
The Methodists intend holding a grand strawberry festival in this stone church here on Thursday evening next, which is expected to be a great success, as invitations have been issued to many noted parties to attend.
Mr. Dorland Fox and James B. Cronk leave on Tuesday for the Colonial Exhibition at London, they will with the Allen line steamship Papyrus. We all join in wishing them a bon voyage. They expect to visit Ireland and France before returning.

PICTON.

From an occasional Correspondent.
Anyone who has visited this place before and coming here this summer will be struck with the marked improvements in the appearance of the harbor. Three immense storehouses are nearly completed. Mr. A. Hepburn has built a coal shed which he has had covered with galvanized iron specially imported from England for the purpose. The Rathbun Company are building another large coal shed and intend building a waiting room, &c. for the accommodation of passengers by their boats. The Cleveland P. Co. have also erected a large storehouse which is the largest in the country and when completed will give employment to about 60 persons.
The High School scholars are revising their work, preparatory to an examination which comes off the first week in July. Good results are confidently expected by the masters.
Quite a number from the county are going to England to the exhibition. Mr. Holway of Concession starts next week. Who's next? The 16th Battalion will go to camp this year either at Colburg or Kingston. This is the third year in succession that the corps have been drilled in the county. It must evidently expect another rebellion (probably in Nova Scotia).
It has finally been decided that the Rev. G. F. Ockley late of Port Perry will accept the pulpit of the stone Methodist Church here. Mr. Geo the gentleman who was appointed by the Conference goes to Millbrook.
Ere the smothering embers of the Canning Factory had wholly consumed that structure, Mr. W. Boulter the proprietor instructed an agent to purchase if possible the plant of the Bloomfield Factory. The negotiating however was unsuccessful as the plant was not for sale. On Saturday morning last Mr. Wm. Miller left per steamer "Hercules" for Camden, N. S., to purchase the necessary machinery which will be here this week. The old premises will get to be rebuilt this season but an addition of 70 feet will be built in the rear of the Evaporator. Such an enterprise is worthy of great encouragement.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Our old settlers are fast disappearing and one by one the pioneers of civilization, who did so much for the settlement of the country in a former generation are passing from amongst us. We regret to be called on this week to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Brennan, of the 6th con, which event took place on the 14th inst. Mr. Brennan had been in poor health for the past year, and very weak for some weeks before his death. He departed this life surrounded by his family and friends, and fortified by the rites of his church, in a good old age, being 83 years old. Mr. Brennan was born in Loughrea, Queen's Co., Ireland, in 1803, and came to this country in 1826. In 1840 he settled in Tyndings when it was a prairie forest, and like many others bowed out for himself a home in the woods and went through all the experiences of opening up a new country. The traveller passing through this section now with well cleared farms and good roads, can form but little conception of the privations and trials of the early settlers. The late Mr. Brennan's funeral took place on the 16th inst., at St. Charles' Cemetery, when there was a large and representative gathering present. Mr. Brennan was a kind and genial friend, a good neighbor and an enthusiastic lover of his native land. He was never so happy as when he was able to assist a fellow Irishman. We extend our sympathy to the widow and the family.
The grand picnic in Hanley's Grove took place on the 17th inst. There was a thunder storm and heavy shower in the morning, but the sun came out and the weather was nature was refreshed with the rain. The picnic proved a decided success. There were 1,500 on the ground, and the general proceeds amounted to over $900. After deducting expenses a handsome sum will be realized. The Napanee Brass Band furnished the music, and a Quadrille Band furnished music for dancing. A good platform had been erected, and the disciples of Terpsichore enjoyed the many dances to their heart's content. The various games were well conducted. Not being furnished with the names, I regret not being able to give the list of the prize winners. The gold watch for the young lady who sold the most tickets, was awarded to Miss Doreen, of Shannonville. Miss Doreen is $825 and Miss Julia Hanley $121. These ladies deserve all praise for the energy and labor they displayed, and which added so much to the financial success of the picnic.
The weather has been very dry, but on Tuesday evening and Wednesday we had refreshing showers.
Our stalwart yeomen are now engaged performing their statute labor and improving the Queen's highways.

MELROSE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Your Shannonville correspondent does not seem to take kindly to having Shannonville spoken of as it was by the Fourth Concession correspondent and retaliates pretty sharply. Probably the Fourth Concession correspondent did not intend what he wrote as a slur on the people of Shannonville, but was only thinking that Shannonville was the place where there was a similar case to the one at Melrose, as, no doubt, he has a very vivid recollection of a certain man from the Fourth who got an arm badly hurt in Shannonville not very long ago.
In the first scene a man of venerable aspect upon whose noble brow intellect had left a stamp was attracting considerable attention. Occasionally there would be heard a burst of applause, which was caused by some remarks that fell from his lips. Like all cultivated men he fitted his remarks to his audience, so that what he said was rather common place; and to show that he was "one of the boys" he was attempting to make a plug of tobacco do the place of a cigar. But in a short time he was interrupted in his mirthful antics, and this introduces us to the second scene. A "cyclo" was started. "I thank thee, fourth-liner for teaching me the word." This "cyclo" was different from the majority of them as water had nothing to do with it. This venerable man now rushed into the midst of it with no very clear idea of what he was doing, as some say he was laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. A violent push quickly changed his position from the perpendicular to the horizontal, and "completely changed the spirit of the dream." He was assisted to rise by one "near and dear" to him. He was sighing and groaning that his arm was out of joint or broken or both. In the last scene the same man was seen standing around with his arm in a sling with a most woe begone expression of countenance, the noble brow was contracted with pain, all his mirth was gone, and he was no longer attracting any attention, excepting an occasional pitying glance. When the Melrose correspondent, who felt genuine pity for the injured man, approached him to inquire about the arm he seemed to be almost stricken with pain and prostration. The reader can rest assured that there is no ill-will lurking underneath this communication as it is only a reminder to the "Rhymer," that he should remember.
When writing of Melrose "cyclo," that "those who live in glass houses should never throw stones."

The Tribune.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1886.
LOCAL ITEMS.

Strawberry festivals are now ripe. This days now begin to grow shorter. Nineteen Indians were placed on the voters list of Deseronto.

Mrs. Finlayson is meeting with wonderful success in the sale of tickets for that fancy quilt.

A GRAND ball will be held in Independence Hall on the evening of Dominion Day. Good order, good music, and a grand time guaranteed. Tickets 50 cts. per couple. All night.

The Rathbun Company are shipping large quantities of cedar paving blocks to Toronto and some cities of Northern New York.

Rev. Rural Dean Stant and Mr. W. G. Egar were out to Wellington and Hiller last week on business relating to the church in that district.

We have received a copy of the prize list for the forty-first Provincial Exhibition, which is to be held at Guelph from Sept. 20th to 25th.

An attempt was made last Saturday night to cut the throat of one of the horses on the Bay View Farm. It is a pity the miscreant who attempted this outrage could not be caught and punished.

It is suggested that each citizen turn out this evening and cut away the burdocks, weeds, thistles, &c., on the streets opposite his residence. Let there be no laggards in the good work.

Mr. Woonewer, who has been assisting Mr. Stadard in the Big Store, has returned to Belleville, the latter gentleman having so far recovered from his accident as to be able to assume all his duties.

A horse belonging to Mr. John Marrigan, Jr., while in the field went to an old well to drink when he slipped in, but was fortunately relieved from his perilous position without much injury.

We have received from the Minister of Agriculture a copy of the Hand Book of Canada, for the purposes of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition. It is full of interesting information and accompanied by valuable charts and maps.

OWING to the prolonged illness of Mrs. Lewis, wife of his Lordship the Bishop of Ontario, the meeting of the synod has been changed from Kingston to Ottawa, where it will take place on Tuesday, July 6th.

We wish the Council or some public spirited citizen would lay down a new platform and boardwalk in front of The Tribune office, those at present doing duty being rather dilapidated, and in fact dangerous.

We have been informed of a scuffle in which two young ladies, one of them at least from Thomas-street, were the principals. It took the form of what is known by the sporting fraternity of a rough and tumble encounter. Our informant states that the fair amazons were not at all particular about their frizzes whether they were rolled up or unrolled, and that their cries as they advanced to the fray would have discounted the war whoop of an Indian brave.

A TEAM of horses belonging to Mr. Peter Ryan, of Kingston, made a lively runaway from the flour mill last week. They dashed into the yard of the O'Connor House where they were captured after much damage had been done to the wagon. In this connection we may state that we learn there is no necessity whatever for farmers to leave their horses at the flour mill as the hands load and unload the wagons and they can depend that weighing, &c., will be done correctly. Much time would be saved and risk avoided if farmers would remember this fact and act accordingly.

The 29th is St. Peter's Day. The 27th is the first Sunday after Trinity. This Big Store disposed of 1,100 boxes of Strawberries on Tuesday.

Next Sunday is the anniversary of the Queen's coronation. A new barn will soon be built by the Rathbun Company on what is known as the Bowen farm on the Boundary road. The Queen's carriage carries an excursion from Belleville to Picton and return on Saturday. Tickets for round trip 25cts. Piano on board.

This Chancery autumn sittings, Mr. Justice Proudford presiding, will be held at Belleville on Tuesday, Oct. 12th.

THE Autumn Astors, Mr. Justice Armstrong presiding, will be held at Belleville on Monday, Sept. 20th; Napanee, Monday Oct. 4th; Picton, Tuesday, Oct. 12th.

The road leading past the Mohawk Church is very rough and unpleasant for driving and requires considerable repairs. However, that is the condition of all the roads in this part of the country.

THE Deseronto Canoe and Boating Club held their regular meeting last Friday night at the Rathbun Company's Central office, when business of importance was transacted.

We beg to call the attention of the authorities to the young rowdies who spend Sunday evenings playing baseball in the Rathbun Company's field east of the village. They should be looked after.

THE American Canoe Association will hold their encampment this season at Grindstone Island, from August 13th to 28th. Mr. F. S. Rathbun is Commodore of the Association.

We regret to record the death of the wife of Mr. John G. Culbertson, after a short illness. She was buried on Monday in the cemetery of Christ Church.

Mr. John White visited this part of his constituency on Tuesday last. We are glad to see that he looks hale and hearty and that he still exists after Mr. Edger's friendly attack on him.

We learn that Mr. John McCullough has purchased the brick block recently erected by Mr. C. Goodmurry for $5,100. The proprietor has workmen busy harrying forward the completion of the building.

The Rathbun Company Band very thoughtfully marched to the hall and played a number of selections in honor of the Broom Brigade on the occasion of their visit on Tuesday evening.

CHARLES McDavid having refused to perform statute labor on the 5th cent. of Thorlow has been ordered by the police magistrate of Belleville to pay 60 cents per day for the number of days labor he should perform, and also the cost of the court.

THE number of baby perambulators to be seen on the boardwalks this season is something wonderful. Pedestrians find them a regular nuisance after six p. m. and a by-law for their withdrawal at that hour is demanded. All babies under fifteen years should be in their little beds by six o'clock.

It sounds odd to Canadian ears to read that the government party in England lacks money to contest the election. If England had great statesmen such as we have in Canada, there would be no such complaints. Gladstone should have passed liberal railway subsidies or colonization road grants before going to the country, and thus have provided his party with funds.

We learn that some of the Napanee visitors nearly met with a serious accident while returning home on Tuesday night. They happened to drive up Fourth street and came to grief against some piles of stone and earth. The night was very dark and there was no light to warn of danger. Fortunately no serious injuries resulted and the corporation luckily escape a big bill for damages, which would have been the result of their carelessness.

At the court held at Shannonville for the final revision of the Dominion Voters List for Tyndinaga, a petition, signed by Chas. Beant, George Maricle, Isaac Green, H. Forles, J. Lewen, J. Moses and fifteen other Indians of the Mohawk Reserve, was presented to Judge Fralick, begging to inform his honor that some party or parties unknown had placed or caused to be placed their names on the list without their knowledge or consent, and requesting his honor to strike off their names as they had no desire to meddle with white men's affairs.

New lines of Gloves, Silk and Kid at the Big Store.

On Thursday Mr. Robert Brown sold the job of graveling 50 rods of the Sliah Road. Remember the bald-headed men's race at the Oldfield Picnic on Dominion Day.

The promotion examinations will be held in the public schools next Tuesday and Wednesday, the 29th and 30th inst.

Locals will run all day between Deseronto and the Mohawk Grove, on the occasion of the Oldfield's Picnic on Dominion Day. About 7:45 o'clock on Tuesday evening a lamp in Mr. G. E. Fraser's store fell and set fire to some stuff near it. It was fortunately extinguished before it could do much damage, who dashed across the street, and with the assistance of Mr. Ralston and others threw the burning mass out on the street, thus preventing the destruction of the Smith Block.

West's World or Family Liniment is a remedy that no well regulated household should be without, as it is a positive cure for Rheumatism. It is invaluable for Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, all diseases requiring external application. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. G. Egar, druggist.

LOCAL TRAINS.—For the benefit of the Trading Public and to afford accommodation to the people of Deseronto, a mixed train leaves the R. K. Depot every morning at 7:45 for Kingston. Parties can go to Kingston or Napanee, and back same day having about eight hours in Napanee and four in Kingston. Low rates of Fare: Kingston and return, $2.50. Napanee and return, 50 cents.

This public are standing by the early closing movement in Deseronto. The ladies, as might be expected, are lending their powerful influence and abstain from shopping after six o'clock. The workmen feel that it is their battle also and are giving loyal support. The movement is making great progress over the Dominion. The pulpits are at last joining in, Dr. Potts, of Toronto, having preached a powerful sermon last Sunday advocating early closing. A synopsis of this excellent sermon may be found in Monday's Mail.

There is no trick to which boys will not resort in order to regale themselves with strawberries, green currants, gooseberries and other fruit so palatable, and well calculated to disturb the latent system of juveniles. Mr. Wm. Dunning is greatly annoyed every day by school boys who throw their stones over his fence, accompanied of course, and who, while recovering them, rob his fine garden of large quantities of fruit and vegetables. The chief will escort them to the station if this practice is continued.

MR. W. C. B. Rathbun, proprietor of Bay View Farm, has given orders that the farm gates must be shut, and the road leading through the farm be closed to pedestrians in the evening. He has been very unwillingly impelled to this action by the perpetration during the past few weeks of a number of outrages by different parties. Rewards have been offered for their apprehension but so far without success. It is a great pity that the misconduct of a few should result in depriving the public of such a pleasant and healthy promenade.

THE Oldfield's Picnic on Dominion Day will undoubtedly be the success of the season as every step has been taken by the appointed Committees to make the affair pleasant and entertaining to their visitors. The Broom Brigade of Napanee, will give their unique entertainment and the Rathbun Company Band will be on hand to discourse excellent music during the day. The ladies of the Church of England, and Methodist church will outvie each other in supplying delicacies and toothsome dinners to their patrons on that occasion.

Party cannot visit the other day to the Big Stables of the Rathbun Company every thing was found in the best of order. A place for everything and everything in its place, neatness and cleanliness, seem to be the principles on which Mr. Jacob Breault, the superintendent, conducts that large establishment. He is ably assisted by his assistants Messrs. George Akey and James Crawford. Great attention is paid to ventilation and proper preparation of the feed for the horses. Powdered charcoal from the chemical works is used in the stalls to prevent ammonia and other offensive odors. Mr. Breault has at present fifty-five horses and four mules under his direction.

If you want to pass a day of unalloyed pleasure be sure to attend the picnic at the Black's Grove on Dominion Day. The members of the Roman Catholic congregation under whose auspices it will be held have made very elaborate preparations. The grounds have been cleared up and otherwise made very attractive. The committee have secured the services of the two best string bands in Belleville, and erected strong and spacious platforms for dancing. The prizes for athletic contests are handsome and valuable. People will be present from all parts of Hastings and Lennox, and as trains and boats will run at all hours, the Picnic is expected to far exceed that of previous years. Meals will be served at exceedingly cheap rates, and all conveniences for physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. We here and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

On Friday morning last a through freight which was immediately following the morning express going east, left the track owing it is supposed to a broken rail when about a mile east of Deseronto Junction. Thirteen cars were wrecked and their contents scattered far and wide. A wrecking party were soon on hand from Napanee but shortly after getting to work they struck for higher wages and consequently returned to the place from whence they came. A new gang having been engaged from elsewhere set to work and soon had the track clear although the wrecking party had delayed by the mishap. Owing to the wrecking party only being able to work between trains the work in clearing up and repairing took a long time during which the gamins of the surrounding country and Deseronto committed predatory attacks on the salvage and returned to their homes laden with spoils whereby the old adage is proved true that it is an ill wind &c.

On Tuesday evening an invading army consisting of the famed Awkward Squad and dashing Broom Brigade, of Napanee, marched on Deseronto, which after a feeble resistance was successfully assaulted and captured, the young men of the town basely making an unconditional surrender to the fair invaders. The entertainment which took place in the Presbyterian School Room, was of a very pleasing character, and we are quite certain that had citizens been aware of the musical treat in store for them on occasion, a much larger attendance would have greeted the visitors. The proceedings commenced with an instrumental duet by Misses Tilly and Percy, and a vocal solo by Mr. L. H. Bennett, after which followed the fancy drill by the Broom Brigade who under Miss Dunbar, their pretty Captain, went through the manual with the broadminded and dashing pan, and performed their different evolutions in a manner deserving of all praise. The singing by the Quintette composed of Miss Emma & the Messrs. Bennett elicited an encore and the solo by Miss Louisa Enay, quite a talented young vocalist, and the vocal duet by the Messrs. Tilly, were rapturously applauded. Reading and recitation were rendered by Miss Eva Taylor and Miss Armstrong who acquitted themselves well. The Messrs. Herring & Ensey also contributed an instrumental duet and several choruses were excellently rendered. The fancy drill by the Awkward Squad was watched with much interest and earned well deserved praise. The closing parade by the two corps was equally well received. Only fair to state that the Broom Brigade bore themselves with more steadiness and precision than their gallant competitors. We hope Deseronto will in future be honored with such similar visits from our Napanee friends.
